Busy With Basketball

There was unusual activity in basket ball circles at the North Shore Country Day school the past week. On Friday of last week, representatives of Lake Forest academy came down bringing two teams. The Lake Forest Bantams defeated the North Shore Reserves, 25 to 9, but in the main game the North Shore team defeated the Lake Forest Light team, 23 to 18.

Monday of this week, the Skokie Experienced Lightweights defeated the North Shore Inexperienced Lightweights, 4 to 3, and on Tuesday of this week, two regular teams of the North Shore defeated their Skokie rivals, the heavyweights winning, 14 to 1, and the middleweights, 4 to 3. On Friday of last week the girls' heavyweight team of the North Shore was defeated by the Skokie heavyweight team, 14 to 10, and on Wednesday of this week the girls' lightweight team of the North Shore defeated the Skokie lightweights, 9 to 7.

The last two teams played a game a week ago, in which the North Shores were victors, 18 to 9.

GIVES PARTIES FOR GUEST

Mrs. Lincoln Pacey of 706 Ash street is giving a series of affairs in honor of her house guest, Mrs. John Perry, of Sturgeon Bay, who will remain for two or three weeks. Last Monday Mrs. Pacey was hostess to a group of 24 friends at luncheon and bridge.

Mrs. Charles Aspenwall, 1195 Tower road, was hostess Friday afternoon, January 29, to a group of friends at a luncheon and bridge, a "vanishing party" to benefit the United Charities.

Mrs. Clarence W. Happ of 306 Walnut street entertained at luncheon and bridge Friday, January 29, in honor of Miss Claire Richardson of Webster City, Iowa.

Mrs. Raymond Kloefer of 722 Elm street was hostess to her bridge club Wednesday evening, February 3.

THE locations of the Silk Shops have been chosen for your convenience. The downtown shop, between State and Wabash, is in the very heart of the loop. It is easily accessible by elevated, surface car, motor bus and automobile. The Evanston and Woodlawn shops are proving a real advantage to patrons who like to avoid the traffic and noise of the downtown district. All three shops are situated on the main floor, thus saving you the annoyance of riding in crowded elevators to reach them.
