John M. Schroeder Dies at Home in Quincy, Ill.

John M. Schroeder, 44 years of age, died at his home in Quincy, Ill., Monday, January 25, after a short illness caused by uremic poisoning. He is survived by his wife and one son, Alfred, and three brothers and one sister. The brothers are Paul Schroeder, of Wilmette and Miami, Florida; Louis, of Bowen, Ill., and Walter, of Hammond, Ind. The sister is Mrs. Louis Huebner, of Coatsburg. The late Henry Schroeder, of Kenilworth, was another brother.

Mrs. Hoyt King, 711 Forest avenue, entertained the members of the H. and W. club at dinner Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Guy R. Knickerbocker of 906 Greenwood avenue will be hostess for her Thursday club next week.

Carrie Chapman Catt Is Chicago Forum Speaker

The woman who led the movement for the adoption of the woman suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the United States, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, will speak at the Chicago Forum Sunday afternoon, February 7, Fred A. Moore, director of the Forum announced this week. Mrs. Catt in her campaign all over the country for woman suffrage up to 1919, and since that time in behalf of education of women as citizens, has earned the title of "America's greatest woman orator." During the war she was a leading member of the Women's committee of the Council for National Defense. Since the war she has been conspicuous as an outstanding leader in the movements for international peace. She will speak at the Forum meeting in the Olympic Theatre Sunday afternoon on "The Causes and Cure of War." The address will be followed by the usual question period.

Mrs. Lewis B. Springer of 430 Maple avenue spent last week-end at Grand View Health resort at Waukesha-Wis., with Mr. Springer. He is gradually improving in health with the treatment there and hopes to return to Wilmette within ten days or two weeks.

Al Peacock of Lake Geneva was the guest of Bill Jordan, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jordan of the Linden Crest apartments, for the first part of this week, during the occasion of their mid-semester vacation from the University of Illinois.

Mrs. Arthur Brown is entertaining a few friends at her home in Highland Park next Wednesday for Mrs. Sam Dingee. Mrs. Brown was formerly a resident of Wilmette.

The piano pupils of Miss Edith Ray Young are having a class play at her home, 630 Park avenue, this afternoon.

Esther Munstermann, contralto, will give the Friday Noon Recital at Kimball hall February 12. There will be no admission charge.

Mrs. Joseph H. Briggs, 1133 Ashland avenue, entertained at luncheon and bridge at her home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Merriman, making a brief visit in Reading, Pa., have returned to their home.
