

MacDowell Society Enjoys Talk by Composer's Wife

The last meeting of the North Shore MacDowell society held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asa B. Cooley of Hubbard Woods was a particularly interesting one owing to the presence of Mrs. Edward MacDowell. Mrs. Cooley opened the program with a group of songs by Tschai-kowsky, Edwards, Sjorgren, Dvorak and Bantock, with Mrs. Everett Harris accompanying her at the piano.

Mrs. MacDowell then told of the colony at Petersborough, N. H., illustrating her talk with stereopticon views. She announced the gift of a new building to house the Humiston library, a bequest of the late William Henry Humiston, which is perhaps one of the finest private collections of music in this country.

An interesting feature of the evening was the unveiling of a bronze bust of Mrs. MacDowell, done last summer at Petersborough, by Ida McClellan Stout of Chicago. This is the gift of Mrs. Milton B. Blouke to the MacDowell colony where it will be placed permanently later in the season. It is now on exhibition at the Woman's City club of Chicago.

Mrs. Lyman Proctor, 860 Spruce street, was hostess to the Pine street circle Wednesday, February 10, at a Valentine party which about 40 guests attended. Games were played and dainty refreshments were served.

Forthcoming Wedding of Interest in Winnetka

An announcement of much interest to a number of his friends in Winnetka is that of the engagement of Louis C. Benoist of the Army and Navy club, and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Benoist, 351 Linden avenue, to Miss Geraldine Grace of San Francisco.

Miss Grace has set April 24 as the date for her wedding which will take place at St. Rose's church in Santa Rosa, Archbishop Edward J. Hanna officiating. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Grace. Mr. Benoist will bring his bride east to live.

NEW AUXILIARY OFFICERS

Newly elected officers of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church of Chicago residing in Winnetka, who were elected at the annual meeting at St. Peter's church last week, are Mrs. Hermon B. Putler, vice president; Mrs. C. C. Daughaday, district vice president; Mrs. Frank Blatchford, recording secretary. Mrs. Curtis Camp of Glencoe is chairman of deaconesses. The auxiliary includes branches in 100 parishes in the Chicago diocese.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Fleager, 952 Pine street, entertained 12 guests at dinner and bridge Wednesday, February 3, on the occasion of Mr. Fleager's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windes of 873 Spruce street, left Tuesday, February 9 for a several weeks' trip in California.

Mrs. George Massey of Winnetka is one of the directors of the Association of Housekeeping centers which benefited by the premier showing of "The Sea Beast" at the Goodman theatre Wednesday. Mrs. Willoughby Walling was one of the patronesses.

Miss Marion Keeney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parke J. Keeney, 523 Hawthorn avenue, a pupil of the Adolph Bolm school of dancing, appeared on the program at the Pabst theatre, Milwaukee, February 12, in a performance of the Bolm ballet.

THE

"Little Electric Iceman"

Says—

"You don't have to mop up after me!

"You don't find any muck and slime in the refrigerator I live in!

"You don't have to remember to put up a card—what's more you don't have to stay home and wait for me.

"Wouldn't you like to have me come and live in your refrigerator? Then you wouldn't need such a large garbage can.

"My last name is Copeland Electric Refrigeration and you can find me at

Sidley Home Utilities

517 Dempster St.
Univ. 9335
Evanston

541½ Central St.
H. P. 2490
Highland Park

P. S.—"Better find out about me soon—It won't be so very long now before you'll need me."

The Little Electric Iceman

Frederick E. Lewis

Resident

North Shore Funeral Director

Mr. Frederick E. Lewis, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Lewis, residing in Wilmette, will direct funerals in a manner to meet the most exacting requirements. They have had twenty-one years of successful professional service in this field. Personally recommended by Mr. Chas. A. Stevens of Chicago and a host of others. They come to the North Shore ready to render the most careful, courteous, conscientious service. All calls will be personally attended to by Mr. Lewis, who is the only funeral director residing in New Trier Township.

Very Latest in Modern Limousine Equipment

Mr. Frederick E. Lewis

assisted by
MRS. F. E. LEWIS

Phone Wilmette 3552 1120 Central Ave.
WILMETTE

