Meeting of February 5

The main feature of the meeting of Scout troops 1, 2 and 3 in Community House Friday evening, February 5, was the entertainment given by members of Troop 1 and 2. Doctor Eisenbrand sang a few songs, accompanying himself on the banjo-uke. This seemed to be the big hit of the evening. Among the other entertainers were Fred Rummler and Gould Davies who sang some songs, Toque Stoddard who Charlestoneed, Bud Fairman and Bill Bennett who comprise Bennett's famous Dixie-Land orchestra.

Before this assembly Troop 3 had a short period in the gymnasium in which time they had drill in field maneuvers. Troop 1 had an O'Grady drill-down in the Assembly room. Troop 2 had a session in the gymnasium for games and relay races. After that they had a serious discussion on the third part of the Scout oath.

There will be initiation of Scouts who have passed tests, Friday, 12.

At the meeting of the Winnetka Troop committee January 29, the following tests were passed:

For Tenderfoot:

Carl Rompel, 239 Ridge Avenue.
Dick Barnard, 410 Cedar Street.
Ben O'Brien, 630 Blackthorne Road.

James Lyons passed his second class test.

William Bennett passed the merit badges for music and swimming.

Ralph Johansen passed the marksmanship requirements.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Marble of 844 Lincoln Avenue left on February 8 for a trip to the west coast. They expect to remain in Los Angeles for several weeks.
