ROTARIANS ARE GUESTS

Members of the Winnetka Rotary club were guests Friday of this week at the home of Andrew W. Paulson, father of Herbert Paulson, well known decorating contractor and member of the club. The luncheon at the home at 1471 Tower road, was given after the approved Swedish fashion, it was announced. The occasion was also the regular weekly meeting of the club, which customarily holds forth at Community House.

Roger K. Ballard, 862 Foxdale avenue, gave a talk before the women's class in finance in the Red room of the Hotel LaSalle Friday, under the auspices of the advisory council of the woman's department of the Federal Securities corporation.
