

At Community House

On Tuesday morning the second of Mr. Richards' lecture classes will meet in the Neighborhood room. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

The Women's society of the Congregational church will meet for its regular bi-monthly meeting Wednesday, March 3.

The last Church Conference night will meet in the Community House, March 3, at 8 o'clock, in the Rudolph Matz hall for dinner, proceeding at 7:20 to the lecture rooms until 8:15 o'clock when they go into the Church auditorium to hear Dr. Rall.

There are to be two gatherings of interest on Thursday evening, when the Congregational church choir will have a party in the Neighborhood room and the Young Men's Sunday Morning class will meet for an informal gathering in the Boy Scout room.

The Rotary club will meet as usual on Friday noon for its luncheon in the Assembly room at 12:15 o'clock.

Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6, will bring a two-day picture in Community House, Everett Hale's story of "A Man Without a Country," wonderfully featured in the play "As No Man Has Loved."

Mrs. J. H. Lindeman of 1082 Spruce street entertained informally at bridge on Tuesday afternoon, February 23, for Mrs. Donald Geary of New York, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney P. Stevens, of 2865 Sheridan place, Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Happ of 306 Walnut street are entertaining Mrs. Happ's father, George R. Crossley, of Webster City, Iowa.

Camp Fire Holds Inspection and Council Meeting

Winnetka Camp Fire Girls held a general meeting Thursday, February 11, in Rudolph Matz hall of Community House. In spite of the blizzardly weather there was a large attendance. The program included "Inspection" by "Chief" J. W. F. Davies and the members of the Camp Fire Council. They were carefully observed as to neatness, posture, and the rules of care about their personal appearance which Camp Fire Girls are taught to observe.

After this, the older Camp Fire Girls formed their Camp Fire Circle, and with fitting and impressive ceremony welcomed new guardians and groups of girls into the circle. Torchbearers Harriet Childs, Hazel Knox and Margaret Sterrett, assisted in this. Mrs. Austin Jenkins of the Camp Fire Council brought a word of greeting from the Council. Miss Janet McKellar, field secretary, national Camp Fire headquarters, was present and was presented by Mrs. E. W. Wortley, chairman of Winnetka Camp Fire Girls. She gave an inspirational talk on the meaning and ideals of Camp Fire and its growth throughout the world. Mrs. William T. Grable, Chicago executive of Camp Fire Girls, was also present. After the ceremonies and songs were concluded, the girls enjoyed a social half-hour together around the Fire Place in the Camp Fire room as guests of the Camp Fire Council.

The new guardians and assistant guardians received into the circle were: Dorothy Scharf, Vivian Eisenbrand, Amy MacIntyre, Agnes Spangler, Virginia Ogan, Atlantis Marshall, Rowena Abplanalp, and Florence Cassard. Four new groups were taken into the organization.

Mrs. William P. MacCracken, 1427 Edgewood lane, left last week for Washington, D. C., for a three weeks' stay. Mr. and Mrs. MacCracken have business interests there.

Miss Susan Alles, 763 Hill road, who has been seriously ill at the St. Francis hospital for the past week, is much improved in health, and is now convalescing.

Going to your office

Take the North Western

SUBURBAN SERVICE

Start the day right by traveling to your work in comfort. No crowding. No straphanging. Seats for everyone. Fast express trains get you there quickly and on time. Convenient schedules. Buy a commutation ticket (it is inexpensive) and travel at your ease on the North Western

Motor busses between Madison Street terminal and principal business centers, connect with trains during business hours.

FAST EXPRESS TRAINS
COMFORTABLE SEATS
CLEAN CARS

For tickets and complete travel information call on any ticket agent C. & N. W. Ry.

YOU don't know how good a favorite dish can be until you've lunched at The New Chocolate Shop. And its attentive, unobtrusive service makes your visit a pleasure.

In the Mezzanine Room, north of the Palm Court—hotel entrance

The ORRINGTON Chocolate Shop

Management of Beach and Geils

Frederick E. Lewis
Resident
NORTH SHORE
Funeral Director

Mr. Frederick E. Lewis, assisted by Mrs. F. E. Lewis, has had twenty-one years of successful service in this field. The best testimony to their careful, courteous, and conscientious work comes from those whom they have served during their residence on the North Shore. All calls will be personally attended to by Mr. Lewis, who is the only funeral director residing in New Trier Township.

Very Latest in Modern Limousine Equipment
1120 Central Avenue
WILMETTE
Parlors phone, Wilmette 3552 Home phone, Wilmette 3552