

Rosenberg's

Evanston—Davis St., at the "L"

Spring Footwear

Three Versions of the Mode

The Tarlequin

A Slipper in
Two Tones

$10

"Color in Shoes," says Fashion, and in this mode we have her edict admirably adhered to. The Ivory Kid vamp and the Crole Kid quarter and strap make a dignified, original slipper of real beauty and grace. High heels, of course.

The Marcelle

A Tailored Pump

$8

A smart, trim patent or calfskin slipper that hints of the Colonial. The heels, gracefully high, accent its feminine daintiness. The buckle adds a touch of charm, while the stitchings accentuate its graceful lines.

The Collegiate

—So Smart
—So Business-like

$8

"The Collegiate" is meant to be practical as well as smart and trig. It readily takes to everyday wear for in its fine leathers of tan or black calfskin or of patent leather, there abounds comfort as well as style. Fashion goes to college in this pump.

Shoes—First Floor

MEETING OPENS VOTE DRIVE FOR PENFIELD

Gathering of New Trier Residents Promises Support for County Commissioner

Laudatory expression of their appreciation of the services of Frederick W. Penfield as county commissioner; their determination to do all within their power to secure his re-nomination at the primary election on April 13 and stirring appeals for a nearly a one hundred percent vote as possible on this date, as well as in all future elections, were voiced most enthusiastically at the dinner given for Mr. Penfield at the Skokie Country club, Glencoe, Monday evening.

One hundred fifty voters, both men and women, were present from the four villages of Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka and Glencoe, many of whom personally voiced the sentiment expressed in the foregoing, while those who, because of lack of time were not permitted to do so, heartily applauded those who did speak and gave unquestionable approval of what was said and done.

Following the excellent dinner, the regular Skokie club service, William S. Elliott, of Winnetka, presiding as chairman, briefly outlined the object of the meeting; stressed the importance of the independent voter; emphasized the urgent necessity of the north shore towns turning out unitedly in support of Mr. Penfield; complimented the high type of citizenship to be found throughout the four towns represented and expressed confidence in obtaining victory at the primary election if the voters only will go to the polls and vote.

Urges 100 Percent Vote

The first speaker introduced was Hoyt King, prominent among civic leaders of Wilmette and who has been an election official in his home village and Chicago for many years. Last month at a meeting of the Wilmette Forum, called for the purpose of encouraging a 100 percent vote in the village at all elections, Mr. King delivered the principal address, his subject at that time being, "A Full Vote, a Prerequisite to Stiffening Official Back Bone."

During that address and also in his talk at the Penfield dinner, Mr. King quoted statistics from the county and state primary in 1922, at which time, he said, there were cast in Cook county for both parties, 417,291 votes, or 27 percent of the total county vote.

"Seventeen percent of the total county vote," he said, "were Republican, and 9 percent of the total vote of Cook county elected our sheriff." Under these conditions Mr. King declared that "a combination of leaders, who can figure on delivering 9 percent of our voting strength, can name the ticket."

Heavy Vote, Solution

That a heavy vote will prevent this very condition and that the failure to vote cannot be justified were points strongly stressed by the speaker.

"A 75 percent vote in Cook county," he said, "would be approximately 1,200,000. Give one-half of it to the Democratic primary and 600,000 for the Republican primary. This would be an increase of more than 100 percent above the 1922 vote. That alone would take the power away from the professional voters who know what they want in return, and will condemn to defeat those officials who do not do their bidding."

Many Leaders Heard

Col. John V. Clinnin, Otto R. Barnett, Merle B. Waltz, Col. Abel Davis, Mrs. Andrew McLeish and Sherman Booth, all of Glencoe; Mrs.

William G. Hibbard, Mrs. William L. Benson, William B. Moulton, William D. McKenzie, A. B. Farwell, William J. Carey and Sanborn Hale, all of Winnetka and Robert Stoddard of Wilmette, were among the others who made brief talks on the general theme of leaving no stone unturned toward getting out the vote on April 13 and in every other honorable way furthering the successful campaign of the guest of honor.

Mr. Penfield, himself, also spoke briefly upon the subject of his campaign and with much feeling expressed his appreciation of the loyalty being shown at this time by his friends.

At the suggestion of Mr. Booth the chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of two from each of the four villages, to formulate further plans for carrying forward the campaign. The chairman will appoint one man and one woman from each town, and the appointees will enlarge the committee as they deem advisable.

Pass Resolutions

In a set of resolutions adopted, citizens of New Trier who have been closely in touch with Mr. Penfield and with his work as county commissioner for the past four years and prior to that time with his efficient and willing work as president of the village of Glencoe for six years and as president of the New Trier Citizens' league for two years, expressed their appreciation of this service, and asked for a further showing of this appreciation by asking that a large vote turn out at the coming primary for William Busse for president of the county board and for county commissioner, and for Frederick W. Penfield for county commissioner and his associates on the Country Towns ticket, George A. Miller, Dudley D. Pierson and Lachlan W. MacLean.

Consider Modern Books at Librarians' Meeting

More than 50 librarians from the north shore and the western suburbs of Chicago attended the meeting of the north shore section of the Illinois Library association held at the Wilmette Public library last Thursday. Miss Anne L. Whitmack, librarian, was hostess to the group and reported a very successful meeting. J. R. Harper, superintendent of schools, spoke in the morning and after a luncheon at the Central cafeteria, a discussion on "modern books and their relation to the library" was held. This was the first time that this group has ever met at the Wilmette library.

These Boy Scouts Will Be Glad for Odd Jobs

The various patrols of Troop No. 1, of the Kenilworth Boy Scouts, will engage in a contest during the month of March to raise money for a contingent fund for the troop. The contest will be held under the direction of Scoutmaster Robert Townley and the methods which may be used to raise the money include giving entertainments, selling old papers, rags, or other material, doing odd jobs about the village and other similar plans open to boys. Plans for the campaign are already being laid by the various patrols and much interest is being shown in the work.

E. Irving Belote of 1136 Oak street recently left on a business trip to Georgia and Tennessee. He will be away about two weeks.

Mrs. A. Kloefer of 1004 Oak street entertained her bridge club Saturday evening, February 20.

Miss Virginia Dunlay of 706 Center street entertained 16 guests at bunco on Monday, February 22.