Ask Children, Parents to Sign Safety Pledge

School children of 1500 cities and towns in the United States will be asked to sign a pledge jointly with their parents to obey the "Ten Commandments of Safety" which are part of the intensive campaign to help cut down the tremendous automobile death toll of the nation, according to an announcement today by Marcus A. Dow, director of the Stewart-Warner Safety Council for the prevention of automobile accidents. The child's teacher also is to sign the pledge. Affixing the child's name on the pledge is accompanied by a serious talk on safety by the teacher. The parchment pledge is given to the child to keep as a permanent safety reminder.

Well Known Subdivider Buys Kenilworth Home

W. R. Branniger, the well known sub-divider, has purchased the fine new nine-room brick residence which is being erected by James Crabb, on Leicester road, Kenilworth. The house is now under construction but it is expected to have it completed by May 1. Hill & Stone, of 404 Linden avenue, Wilmette, were the brokers in the transaction.

DISPLAY INDIANA ART

Hoosier Salon to Open Saturday in Marshall Field Galleries; Open
March 8 to 20

Announcement was made this week of the special days to be held in connection with the Hoosier salon art exhibit, to be held in the Marshall Field galleries from March 8 to 20. The salon is sponsored by the Daughters of Indiana, the Indiana Society of Men and alumni of various Indiana colleges.

Any native born artist who has received his training in Indiana can exhibit as well as any artist who has an established periodical residence in the state or who has been affiliated with a group of Indiana artists for five years. A number of special prizes have been offered by John C. Shaffer, the Daughters of Indiana, Col. George T. Buckingham and the Edward Rector Memorial fund.

Saturday, March 6, will be devoted to a special exhibit for members of the Indiana Society for men and their wives; Daughters of Indiana, and their husbands; officers of college alumni associations and a few special guests. Monday, March 8, will be all-artists' day, when Chicago artists will be invited to attend and meet the Indiana artists. The program for Tuesday and Wednesday will be announced later.

Thursday, March 11, is Earlham college alumni day, and Friday, March 12, is DePauw alumni day. On DePauw day, President Murlin of the college will give an address and there will also be speeches by Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, ex-president of DePauw, Federal Judge James K. Wilkerson, Judge Taylor and Roy West. A luncheon will be held for all DePauw alumni in Field's grill. During the afternoon several Indiana artists will conduct a gallery tour and there will be several talks.

Indiana university will hold a dinner on Saturday, March 13, and Purdue university, Culver Military academy and Butler college are planning luncheons during the week.

NOTICE TO

TELEPHONE SUBSCRIBERS BILLING CHANGE

The date of rendering telephone bills will be changed in April.

Telephone subscribers whose accounts are payable at the WINNETKA EXCHANGE will receive bills in the future dated the 11th of each month.

This change, as part of a new Billing Plan for all Exchanges in the Suburban Area, will greatly simplify and expedite the rendering of bills so that our subscribers will receive their statements more promptly.

Please be sure to read the explanation of this new Plan which accompanies your March 1st bill and your bill received during April.

Beauty Lies in Healthy EYES

It's not so much the size or color of the EYES that makes them beautiful. Rather, it's the glow which radiates from them. Unless kept always clean and healthy, EYES lack this alluring lustre.

Millions of women throughout the world promote EYE health and beauty with Murine. It cleanses EYES of irritating particles and keeps them clear and bright. Contains no belladonna.

Our illustrated books on "Eye Care" or "Eye Beauty" are FREE on request.
