

Hear "The Angelus" Today

Victor Record No. 35767

A soul-stirring record of "The Angelus," played on a grand-organ with chimes—cathedral-like—inspiring. You will want it in your home, for never were the deep, moving notes of the organ or the silver ring of the chimes so perfectly reproduced.

Together with "The Angelus," the Victor Company has released for March eight marvelous new Red Seal records—eight records of song and instrumental music—six popular songs and ballads—and thirteen new dance records that will make wonderful dancing. As you listen to them, as you note the rich bass, the greater range, the perfect finish, you will be amazed at the beauty of the reproduction of the new Orthophonic Victrola.

Come in any time. This is your concert hall.

Playwriting Class Offers Prize for Best Contribution

The Playwriting class, a joint project of the Northwestern University School of Speech and the Drama Club of Evanston, is offering a prize scholarship of ten lessons for the best play to be contributed by March 17. Anyone on the north shore who is interested in playwriting, is eligible, to send in a play, it is announced, and any type or length of play will be accepted. The manuscripts, unsigned and accompanied by the author's name in a sealed envelope, are to be sent to Mrs. Carlos Andrews, 102 Keeney street, Evanston.

The three persons who will judge the plays will be: Theodore B. Hinckley, who has conducted the class for the past three years, and who also has been teaching classes in contemporary drama and playwriting at Northwestern university, and editor of The Drama magazine; Alexander Dean, director of the Playshop of Northwestern university, and director of the North Shore Theatre Guild; and Mrs. Carlos Andrews, who for several years has been chairman of the playwriting class committee.

The scholarship comprises ten weekly class lessons which begin March 23, to be held each Tuesday morning, at 10 o'clock, at the Evanston library
