Young Men's Class to Try Bowling Once More

The Young Men's class of the Congregational Church school plans another evening of bowling, Thursday, March 11, at the Woman's club. The last affair of this kind was the scene of some very remarkable scores, ranging from 45 to 197. Russell Hunting, who made the last named total is anxious to show it was not due to luck alone, by toping 200 this time.

Frank Bailey, president of the class, and Edgar Dale, secretary, have been holding secret practice in the bowling alley, it is rumored, in order to improve their form, which they admit was a bit off last time. Keen competition is expected for high (and low) scores.
