BETROTHED

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Roehm of 835 Hill road have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy E. Roehm, to Jackson K. Dering, Jr., son of Mrs. Jackson K. Dering of the Ambassador hotel and Lake Villa. Miss Roehm is a freshman at Northwestern university and a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority. Mr. Dering is a junior at Harvard university. No date has been chosen for the wedding.

Mrs. Howard E. Perry of Portland, Maine, is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Rudolph Matz of "Wynnecliff," in Hubbard Woods. Many of her former friends are entertaining for Mrs. Perry, who will remain here a while longer.

Jennie L. Adams
Called by Death
at Highland Park

Mrs. Jennie L. Adams, wife of Postmaster Elmer E. Adams and mother of Alva Lee Adams, of the Adams Pharmacy at 784 Elm street, passed away at the Highland Park hospital, Wednesday morning, March 3, at 5:35 o'clock, following an illness of several weeks' duration, pleurisy being the direct cause of her death.

Mrs. Adams was a daughter of William H. and Martha Cazal, of Olney, Ill., where she was born February 23, 1867. There she was united in marriage with Mr. Adams, November 23, 1887, soon after which they came to Chicago, and to Winnetka, in 1898, where the family has since resided, their present home being at 873 Oak street. In 1903 Mr. Adams was one of the founders of the present Adams pharmacy, which Mrs. Adams actively participated in developing, gaining a host of friends throughout this community who now deeply mourn her passing. Mr. Adams, who has been postmaster in Winnetka since 1921, also held this office for the four years between 1909 and 1913. Previous to that time, dating from 1894 and also between his terms as postmaster, he was employed in the railway mail service. Mr. Adams has just been re-appointed for another term as postmaster.

Mrs. Adams was a member of the Eastern Star, of Winnetka, and of the White Shrine, of Evanston.

In addition to the husband and son, five brothers and two sisters survive. The brothers are, T. J. Cazal, of Decatur; Robert Cazal, of Freeport; George Cazal, of Champaign; John D. Cazal, of Olney, and Harley R. Cazal, of Villa Grove. The sisters are, Mrs. Belle Stevens, of Chicago, and Mrs. Charles Rexroat, of Bloomington.

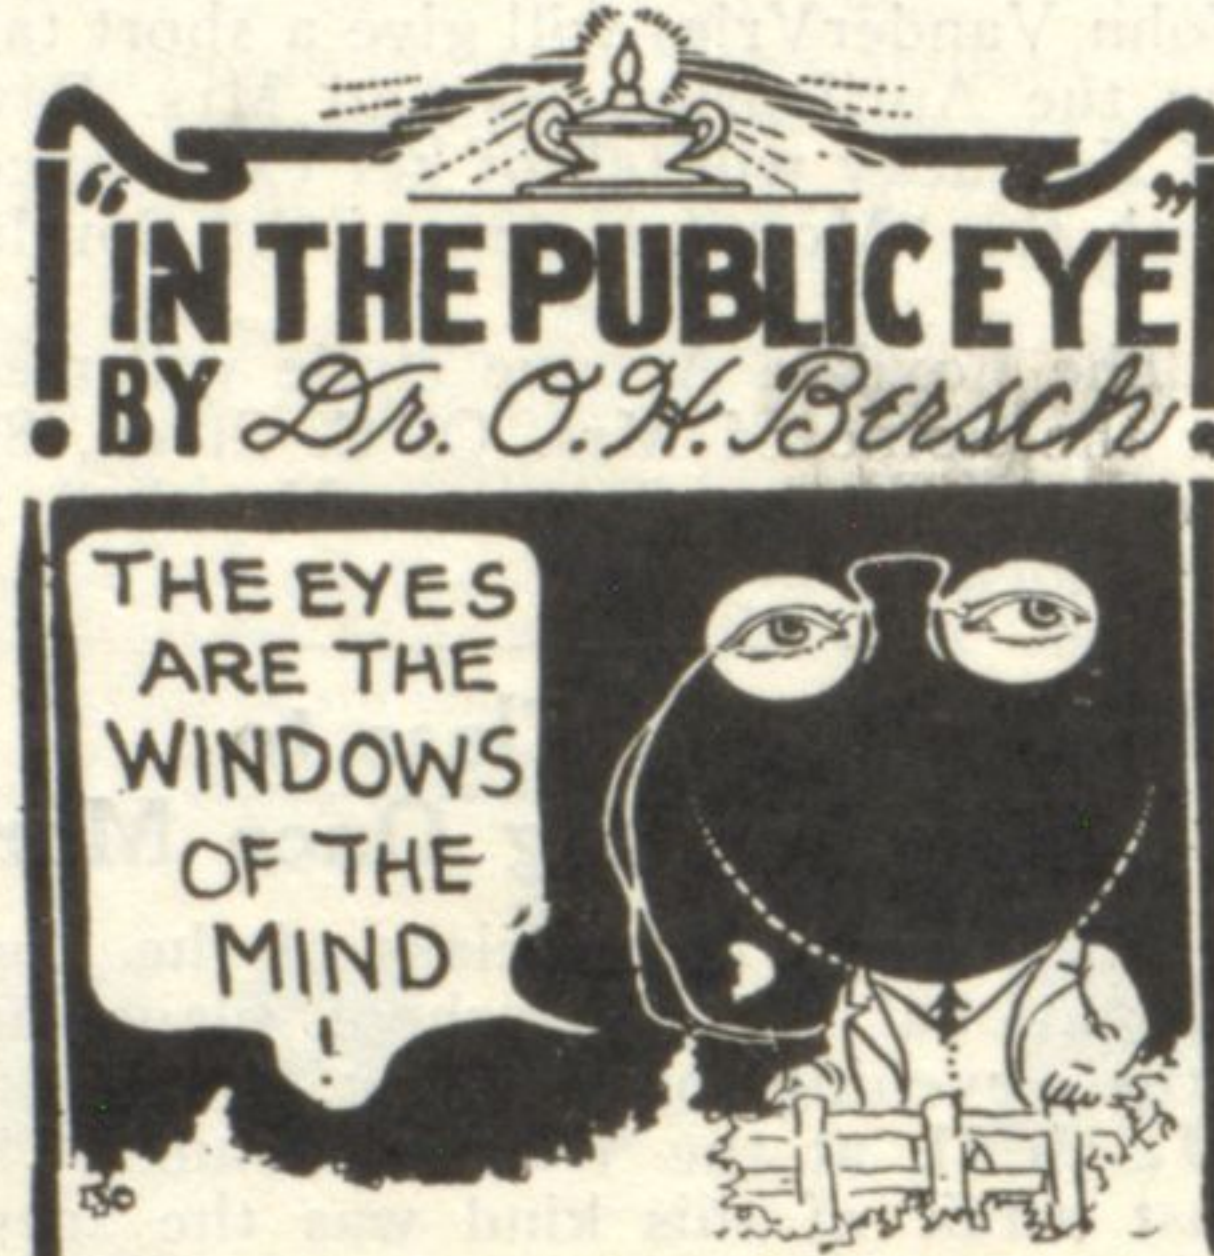

Funeral services were conducted from the chapel, at Memorial Park cemetery, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, by the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

An interesting betrothal of two young people very well known among the younger set of the village was made this week by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Colvin, Sr., of Evanston, of the engagement of their daughter, Lora Josephine, to Gordon Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitney of 404 Church street. The Colvin family has a large acquaintance here.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Affleck of 695 Lincoln avenue who were the guests for the past two months of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dickinson in their winter home near Miami, Fla., have returned to the village. During their stay in the South, they spent a week cruising to Havana on the Dickinson yacht.

Mrs. Wilson Reid of 561 Cherry street, who recently fell from a horse and fractured a limb, is now convalescing at her home.
