WHEN IS A SCARF NOT A SCARF?

When it's one of the new cravat-kerchiefs, worn close about one's neck and knotted in monchalant style at the side. It suggests the fashionable high neck and is extremely attractive when selected in color to accent or contrast with the color of one's costume.

THE SPOTLIGHT IS ON THEATRICAL GAUZE

On the stage of home-beautifying, this Theatrical Gauze gets loud applause. It wins its on-lookers by its two-tone colors of blue and natural, lavender and natural and green and orange, by it being "different" and inexpensive, withal.

A LUCKY ELEPHANT

And a white one, too! He carries a Chinese Princess, and is hurrying along with trunk uplifted. The elephant is a new tea pot, his trunk is the spout, and the princess is the cover-lift. Novel, to be sure, and the more attractive for it.

Chicago Man Buys New Residence in Wilmette

The fine new Dutch colonial brick residence just completed at the north-east corner of Third street and Laurel avenue, Wilmette, by Carl and Fred Hartman, the well known builders, has been sold to Gus D. Cominos, barber, at 20 N. Clark street, Chicago, the reported consideration being $23,500. In addition to the six rooms there are also a large sun room, sleeping porch, breakfast room and two baths, comprising a most convenient lay-out and an exceedingly attractive building. There is also a two-car brick garage on the property. Mr. Cominos and family will occupy their new home, following their return from a month's trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dean of Hinsdale, former residents of Walden road, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cary-Curr of Spruce street.

Mrs. C. J. Kostbade of 1149 Scott avenue left March 3 on an eastern trip. She is going to Boston and will be away a few weeks.

Glencoe Man Dies on Return From Trip to Chicago

Herman Weichbrodt, for the past five years a resident of Glencoe where he was employed as gardener on the estate of J. H. Selz, 740 Sheridan road, and on which Mr. and Mrs. Weichbrodt resided, died Monday afternoon of heart trouble. He was stricken on the train from which he was returning from a business trip to Chicago. As the train pulled into the station at Glencoe, the conductor noticed the limp form of Mr. Weichbrodt in the seat which he had occupied when boarding the train. The body was removed to the station where James N. Faucett, the agent, summoned a physician, but the man was beyond aid and death ensued a few minutes afterwards.

Mr. Weichbrodt was 65 years old. For seven years previous to moving to Glencoe he resided in Winnetka, where he now has two sons, Walter and Herbert, residing at 1005 Willow street. A daughter, the other surviving member of the family, lives at Congress Park. There are also thirteen grand children.

Friends of Chicago Junior School Plan Program as Benefit

The North End branch of the Friends of the Chicago Junior school is giving an entertainment at the Rogers Park Woman's club Thursday evening, March 18, at 8:20 o'clock, for the benefit of the school. The program consists of three one act plays given under the direction of the Alter Ego Little Theatre Players of the Gunn school of Music and Dramatic Art.

The Friends of the school are organized to assist in providing a home and education for under-privileged children between the ages of 4 and 16 who have not sufficient funds at their disposal for proper care. The home-school is on a farm located on the Fox river one mile north of Elgin and is open to eligible children throughout the state.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the sons in Winnetka, by the Rev. John Erb, of Chicago, following which the remains were laid at rest in Memorial Park.

Arch Preserver Shoes for Spring!

The Connie

A neat cut-out design that may be had in Patent Leather, Black Kid or Brown Kid.

Child's Strap Pump

IN the consideration of Milady's shoes, the matter of style must not be overlooked. No costume can ever be successful without care in the selection of shoes.

In addition to style, you can also have perfect foot health and comfort. You cannot see the difference in Arch Preserver Shoes—the concealed, built-in arch bridge prevents sagging and the flat inner sole prevents pinching.

The Barrie

A very attractive pump featured in Beige Kid with Sauterne or plain all over trim.

The Liza

The season's newest one-strap model in plain Parchmont Kid. Extremely attractive.

Kiddies' Oxford

A remarkably sturdy and comfortable child's shoe. It may be had in Patent Leather or Tan Calf.
