R. W. Soderberg Joins Lumber Company Forces

Twenty-six years of experience in the fuel business is one of the qualifications of R. W. Soderberg, who recently became associated with the Hubbard Woods Lumber and Coal company as manager of the fuel department. Mr. Soderberg is now living in Evanston, but expects to sell his home there and make Winnetka his future home. Mr. Soderberg will help the Lumber company to extend an even better brand of service to its customers than in the past, and invites those with fuel problems to let him solve them.

Swedish Minister Will Address Skokie Pupils

Thursday of last week, at Skokie Assembly, was given a demonstration of Indian relics and the giving of a series of Indian dances, which were worked out by Raymond Ickes, John Collier and Webb Young. Mr. Young's place was taken by Alan Robinson, as Mr. Young sailed this week for Europe. The collections came from the different Pueblo tribes of the Southwest.

Last Tuesday's Assembly was addressed by the Rev. A. Ernest Rohrbach of Stockholm, Sweden, who spoke last Friday at the meeting of the Winnetka Rotary club at the home of Andrew W. Paulson, 1471 Tower road. Owing to the popularity of this address it was deemed advisable to have Mr. Rohrbach talk to the children at Skokie school.

New Trier Wins the District Title in Cage Tourney

New Trier High school won the championship of the district high school tournament at Evanston last Saturday, beating Evanston High in the final game, 24 to 14. The north shore team, one of the strongest fives in the state, by its victory qualified for the section tournament at Joliet Friday and Saturday of this week.

Although appearing stale, New Trier outclassed Evanston throughout the entire game, leading at the half, 11 to 9. But after the intermission Evanston had few opportunities to score. In its closing games, New Trier lacked the dash and fight it has shown all season, and apparently the three day session was a bit too strenuous.

New Trier earned its way into the finals by beating Hinsdale, 27 to 19, yesterday afternoon. Evanston won its semifinal tilt from Elmhurst, 20 to 13.

Advertisement Brings Quick Property Sale

Frank H. Gathercoal, of 607 Main street, Wilmette, who is handling Hoyt King's new sub-division out at Glenayre, sold the first lot Sunday to Henry H. Abegg, of Wilmette, and is anticipating a very active market in this new section. Mr. Gathercoal's first advertisement on the new property appeared in WILMETTE LIFE last Friday. The following Sunday, Mr. Abegg, who had the advertisement bought the first lot and informed Mr. Gathercoal that he could credit the advertisement with the sale, as it was there he learned of the attractive offer.

ITS convenient location is not the only reason why so many people return day after day to The New Orrington Chocolate Shop. It's the careful attention in every detail of fine cuisine and service, with the happy note of a pleasing environment.
