

C. OF C. MEETS MONDAY

The Winnetka Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday evening, March 15, at Community House. Matters of importance to every member will be discussed at this session, it is announced.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Rawleigh of 590 Willow street returned from their southern trip on March 7, having spent five delightful weeks in Nassau.

A CORRECTION

In a recent issue of Winnetka Talk it was stated that physicians at the Infant Welfare station at Chicago Commons, which derives much of its financial support from Winnetka, gave advice and treatment free of charge. This was an erroneous impression. The physicians, it is explained, are paid by Infant Welfare society, although their services entail no cost to the patient.

Guy C. Caldwell, of Longs Peak, Colo., will speak at Skokie school assembly, next Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock, on the subject, "Birds, Songs and Wild Flowers." Mr. Caldwell is lecturing under the auspices of the Nature Magazine. His talk will be for the parents as well as the children of the school.

Mrs. Halsey White, with her son, Hugh White, and her niece, Miss Ruth Gibson, has returned to Winnetka and is residing at 708 Willow road.

Camp Fire Embers

Camp Fire Girls—LINE UP! Thus were pointed out the girls who had finished their knot-boards, for every girl possessing one was tightly clinging to the cherished piece of wood, due March 4. Curious comments escaped from the lips of those who passed up the line viewing differing artistic effects plus some hurried but also conscientious efforts resulting in knot-boards. We will say that there were some very lovely results.

Assembly broke up—as Assemblies do—and group meetings commenced. A surprise was in store! Mrs. Luther Gulick, the inspiration of Camp Fire Symbolism, arrived at five o'clock to talk to the girls. Can you imagine anything more perfect with which to end a Camp Fire day than to have one of our own Founders speak to us of the very medium by which we express ourselves?

This week Camp Fire is to have another surprise! An expedition is planned for those who finished their knot-boards in time. The report to be sent in next week will undoubtedly call forth exclamations of pleasure and appreciation. We will do our best! WO-HE-LO, Camp Fire Girls.

Mrs. I. B. Connor, 1152 Hampton-dale road was hostess at a luncheon and bridge party Thursday of last week for Mrs. Charles Hurd of New York, who was the house guest of Mrs. Hubert Howard.

BOYS! Here is your chance to win a big cash prize just by writing a good essay!

First prize is $1,000 — enough to buy an automobile—a six week's trip to Europe — or to pay your college tuition for four years.

Then there are five prizes of $200 each. Just think — $200 will buy a brand-new first-class motorcycle — or a saxophone, bicycle and camping outfit—and still leave spending money.

In addition there are 260 other prizes ranging from $100 to $5—all well worth competing for.

These 266 prizes aggregating $5,000 are being offered by the Radio Corporation of America for the best essays on radio broadcasting written by boys from 12 to 18 years of age.

Don't do any writing until you come in and learn the particulars of the contest.

Come and we'll be glad to tell you all about this contest.
