

HOYBURN THEATRE

Lowell Sherman in "The Love Toy" is coming to the Hoyburn theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 15, 16 and 17. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday the feature attraction will be "Chip of the Flying U," with Hoot Gibson. This latter picture is a thrilling western, which gives the popular Hoot Gibson a chance to display his riding and shooting ability. It is said to be much the best production in which he has ever appeared. With this picture there will also be "Bachelor Babies," a juvenile comedy and the usual news reel.

The direction is most capable, and the supporting cast, which includes Wyndham Standing, Frank Elliott, Florence Turner, Helen Jerome Eddy, Charles Lane and other well known players, is well chosen and very capable.

On Friday and Saturday, March 19 and 20, there will be a double feature bill. The two features will be "The Ancient Mariner," taken from Samuel Coleridge's famous poem, and Larry Semon in "The Perfect Clown," said to be his funniest picture. There will also be a news reel.

HOWARD THEATRE

Marion Davies will be seen at the Howard next Monday and Tuesday in her latest sensational success, "The Lights of Old Broadway." Those who liked her in "Little Old New York" will be even more pleased with her performance in this new production. Miss Davies is supported by a strong cast and the picture shows good photography and good direction.

On Wednesday and Thursday, March 17 and 18, Mary Philbin will be seen in "Fifth Avenue." This picture is a little different from the usual run of pictures in which the petite star has been appearing recently and you are sure to like her in her new role.

Our old friends Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton will be seen Friday and Saturday, March 19 and 20, in "Behind the Front." There will also be the usual comedies and news reels.

VILLAGE THEATRE

An imposing list of stars will be seen at the Village theatre in various productions during the coming week. There is Colleen Moore, Ronald Colman and Vilma Banky, Larry Semon and others.

Colleen Moore will be seen Monday and Tuesday, March 15 and 16, in "We Moderns," a drama of post-war youth. With this feature will be a comedy, "Laughing Ladies," and Pathe news reel.

Vilma Banky and Ronald Colman will be seen Wednesday and Thursday, March 17 and 18, in "The Dark Angel."

Ronald Colman is at his very best as Hilary Trent, the young and handsome army officer, and the story concerns his love for Vilma Banky, as the beautiful Kitty Vane. This is Miss Banky's initial bow to American audiences, and we prophesy a great future for the talented and beautiful young lady.

A complete film showing all the activities of your own troops from the time they entered training camps as a raw recruit doing kitchen police, intensive training, aboard trains to New York, on board ships to France, debarking in a foreign country, the march to the "rest" camps, taking the 40 hommes, 8 chevaux to the front lines, life at the front lines with all the valor and heroism of your own troops, the armistice, the mademoiselle from gay Paree, homeward bound, discharged, again a "civy"

All this takes place in the only film ever produced by the U. S. Government showing exclusively Illinois' troops. You cannot afford to miss it. See your neighbor in it. He is an excellent actor. He did not have a big fat contract at beaucoup francs per week. He played the part for you and played it well. You play your part now by seeing him in action in this film which you will long remember as the best war film you ever viewed.
