March 25 Is Final Day for Tax Paying

Township Collector Sanborn Hale's offices in the Winnetka State Bank will be open until Thursday, March 25, for the payment of taxes by residents of New Trier. Delay in securing tax books from the county headquarters has necessitated postponement of the tax-paying deadline in the township, it is explained.

Posters directing attention of the taxpayers to the advantages of paying taxes "at home," rather than in the county building have been placed at points of vantage in all the villages of the township. On these Collector Hale emphasizes that payment of taxes at the Winnetka headquarters insures direct benefit for the schools, the villages and the township as a whole.

Taxes paid after March 25, must be paid at the County offices in Chicago.

Hokanson and Jenks Is Newest Realty Concern

Nels M. Hokanson, formerly north shore manager for Quinlan and Tyson, and Herbert C. Jenks, formerly Evanston manager for McGuire and Orr, have organized the firm of Hokanson & Jenks, Inc., to specialize in north shore properties.

The new firm has opened temporary quarters in the Carlson bungalow at 500 Davis street, Evanston, and will have permanent offices in the new John Evans building when it is completed.

Mr. Hokanson is treasurer of the Evanston Real Estate board. Mr. Jenks has been associated with north shore real estate affairs for many years.

The next in the series of garden club talks given by Mrs. Charles Hubbard will occur at the home of Mrs. Hubbard, 849 Foxdale avenue, Monday, March 22.

Art League Will Hold Exhibition in Winnetka Hall

The North Shore Art league members look forward to the exhibition of pictures and sculptures on April 15 at Matz hall, Community House, Winnetka. There will be a dinner, after which the pictures and sculpture will be viewed.

James Cady Ewell is chairman of the exhibition and plans with his committee to hang two pictures (not before publicly shown) from each of the producing members. Any sculpture done by the members will also be placed in the exhibition, such to be sent in by April 10.

It is the desire of the committee to place twenty of the pictures (to be chosen by the league members by vote) in the different township schools that wish them, for two weeks, such schools paying only for express charges. Here is a fine opportunity for teachers and pupils to view twenty oil paintings.

The offices of the league and Mr. Ingerle, president, extend an invitation to all artists on the north shore to become members of the organization, also anyone interested in art to join and support the work of this group, which is trying to strengthen an appreciation for art in the form of lectures, exhibitions, and classes in this community.

At the March meeting of the league, Harry Timmins, president of the American Academy of Fine Arts, gave a very interesting talk on composition, illustrating it in a technical way. George Oberteuffer is conducting a class in "life" on Thursday evenings at Winnetka Community House.

The Northwestern board, a group of Winnetka women who sew for the Northwestern University settlement, met all-day Thursday in Mrs. John Nash Ott's garage, 17 Indian Hill road.
