MacDowell Society Meets at Kenilworth Hall on Wednesday

The North Shore MacDowell society will meet at the Kenilworth Assembly hall, half a block east of the Kenilworth station, Wednesday evening, March 24, at 8:15 o'clock. The program will be given by Stella Roberts, violin; Ralph Horween, viola; Lillian Reyberg, 'cello; Charles E. Lutton, baritone, and Mrs. Dwight Orcutt at the piano.

It will be of interest to the north shore society to know that the MacDowell colony will be represented by a booth at the Woman's World Fair to be held at the Furniture Mart April 17 to 24. Entrance tickets may be procured at the meeting Wednesday, and any ticket bought through the society will benefit the MacDowell colony at Peterborough.

Anita Willits Burnham, Winnetka artist, will give her chalk talk, "Abroad with a Paintbox and a Family of Six" before the Englewood Woman's club, Monday, March 22. Mrs. William Merriman will sing.

A wonderful new rubber mask which rests and shapes the drooping muscles at eyes and mouth, drives out the poison of fatigue, and permits proper feeding of skin. Masque de Beaute, with generous tubes of wonderful Cleaning and Tissue Creams and copy of "Facing the Future," sent postpaid $5; sent c. o. d. if more convenient. MAISON DE BEAUTE (House of Beauty) Chicago, Paris.

"AGENTS WANTED"

Plan Convention of Club Federation at Edgewater Beach

Plans for the thirty-first annual convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs to be held May 18-21, at Edgewater Beach hotel, Chicago, are being formulated by the program committee and the board.

The personnel of the latter are the first ten district presidents and chairmen of local committees. Mrs. William Franklyn Farrell, president of the Tenth district, is chairman, Mrs. Joseph J. Worker, president of First district, is vice-chairman, Mrs. Samuel D. Snow, president of the Ninth district, is recording secretary, Mrs. Walter W. H. Schwedler, president of Sixth district is corresponding secretary, and Mrs. George W. Gambrill, president of Seventh district, is treasurer.

Features of the program which have been decided upon are three department luncheons a day during convention, an Art program Tuesday evening under direction of Mrs. Charles W. Leigh. Lionel Robertson, speaker, will give a demonstration of art in the home; Wednesday evening an annual banquet with music and speaker; Thursday evening dinner for Junior auxiliaries, program to be furnished by Juniors, with Mrs. M. K. Northam, General Federation chairman, and Mrs. Allen M. Elrod, state chairman, as guests of honor; Friday forenoon club institute. Mrs. George Thomas Palmer, state president, will preside at all regular sessions.

SPEAKS AT WILMETTE

Superintendent Carelton Washburn of the Winnetka schools spoke regarding the Winnetka system of education at the luncheon of the Wilmette Rotary club Wednesday of this week.

Miss Audrey Stixrud of 607 Willow street is spending four or five weeks in Boston where she is visiting Miss Ruth Ella Morse, formerly of Kenilworth, and Miss Carol Dunton.
