

WINNETKA TALK

Vanishing Landmark

This familiar Winnetka landmark, built to be a college, and made useful for purposes as an elementary school, library, social center, and in recent years as a Village hall, is soon to become a fire station. Of course it is to be extensively remodeled and modernized. After all, we're going to miss the old place.

Saturday, April 3, 1926

FIVE CENTS