

Marries in May

Miss Olivia Fentress

Miss Olivia P. Fentress, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fentress of Hubbard Woods, is to have only one attendant, her sister, Louise, when she is married to Herman A. L. Behlen, a young architect of New York City. The wedding is to take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon on May 22 at the Fentress residence at 1127 Sheridan road and will be followed by a reception. The Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church is to perform the ceremony. George Masson of Windsor Canada, is to be the best man. Mr. Behlen and his bride will reside in New York.

The romance of Miss Fentress and Mr. Behlen is the culmination of their association while they were studying abroad. Miss Fentress met Mr. Behlen in Rome where he was studying architecture. Miss Fentress later went to Vienna where she studied music.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron V. Kanaley of 1734 Asbury avenue, Evanston, and Mrs. Kanaley's mother, Mrs. Blanche S. Buddeke of Chicago, sail Saturday, April 3, on the Carinthia for a six weeks' trip on the Mediterranean.
