The Tender Feet of Childhood

Don't let a child "break-in" a pair of shoes — correctly fitted shoes do not need "breaking in"

A Foster "TROJAN" Sports Oxford
A carefully designed "Play" Shoe

"Correct Fitting" is perhaps the principal reason why so many parents ALWAYS buy Foster Shoes for Children. True, Foster Shoes perhaps give better service in "wear and tear", they may be "better looking" but after all "Correct Fitting" is the main thing with us.

There's a correct Foster Shoe for every age of the growing child.

Local Man to Receive Orders for Priesthood

Brother Luke, O. P., formerly James B. McKenney, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. McKenney, of 752 Foxdale avenue, will receive Minor Orders for Holy Priesthood on Monday and Tuesday, April 12 and 13.

Brother Luke received his early education at the Sacred Heart school, Hubbard Woods, then entered the Franciscan Seminary at St. Francis, Wis., and spent five years of study there. After completing his seminary work he decided to enter the Dominican Order of Priests for missionary work and spent one year at the Dominican Novitiate at Somerset, Ohio, from there he was sent to Springfield and after two years of study there was transferred to the Dominican House of Studies at Washington, D. C., where he has been for the past five years.

Mrs. McKenney and daughter, Dr. Dosanna N. McKenney, will go to Washington to witness this impressive ceremony. After spending a few days with her son, Mrs. McKenney will go to Atlantic City for a few weeks, while Dr. McKenney, will go to New York where she will sail for Vienna to spend six months in specializing in diseases of women.

BETROTHED

Mrs. F. W. Renshaw of 256 Sheridan road who has been spending the winter in California, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Edith Jane, to Herbert P. Wolfe, son of Judge Charles P. Wolfe of Wahpeton, N. Dak. The wedding will probably not take place until early fall.

The Fortnightly meets Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. Dow Harvey, 88 Indian Hill road, at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Ernest Ballard will read a paper.
