

FLOOROLEUM STORES A
 Greenleaf 1941 1007 Davis St. Evanston
FLOORCOVERING SPECIALISTS SPECIAL

One Week Only
"CONGOLEUM" $8.95
 9x12 ART SQUARE

With Mat to Match, All for Considerably Less Than
 Price of One.

New Dutch Tile and Marble
 Patterns.

LET OUR FAMOUS SPECIALISTS IMPROVE YOUR FLOORS WITH INLAID LINOLEUM—CARPETING — RUGS.

$50 —and you have OIL HEAT

Not a "cottage size"—but the very same model that has made Oil-O-Matic the leader the world over. A $50.00 outlay puts it in your house today.

Operation costs are low. Average saving over hard coal is 10%. Many save as high as 50%. No one would give it up regardless of cost. Cheap fuel oil and correct method the secret.

What "reason" now for burning coal? Why put up with spasmodic heat another season? $50.00 brings complete relief. Take a year to pay the balance. Every installation is guaranteed. Investigate today.

WILLIAMS OIL-O-MATIC HEATING

Sidley Home Utilities

Highland Park
 541 1/2 Central Ave.
 H. P. 2490

Evanston
 517 Dempster St.
 Univ. 9335

Glencoe Man Candidate In High School Ballot

On April 10 there comes the occasion for the election of a school trustee for New Trier High school to fill the expired term of Harry C. Holloway of Glencoe.

According to the gentlemen's agreement of long standing in the township, Winnetka, Glencoe and Kenilworth are each represented by one trustee while Wilmette, in proportion, has two representatives. In this election Mr. Holloway, the Glencoe trustee, is candidate for re-election. His excellent reputation and the benefits of his work as trustee makes it imperative that the communities register a complete endorsement of the candidate.

BUYS KENILWORTH PROPERTY

The Irvin L. Simmons residence property at 237 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, has been sold to John Duncan, of 1012 Ashland avenue, Wilmette. Hill and Stone, of 404 Linden avenue, Wilmette, were the brokers.

An engagement announcement of interest in Winnetka is that made by Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Thomas Walker of Chicago, and formerly of this village, of their daughter, Marion, to Denison B. Hull, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Denison Hull of Chicago and Washington, D. C. Miss Walker was a debutante of several seasons ago, and attended Miss Walker's school at Simbury, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Crilly, 606 Provident avenue, entertained the Neighborhood Dancing club at their home after the dance last Saturday night. Breakfast was served.

Friends in Council to Hear Talk on Flowers

At the meeting of the Friends in Council of Evanston today, a program will be heard that will convey a thought of the approaching blossom time, for in addition to the talk by Mrs. Alexander on "Wild Geese," the novel from the pen of Martha Ostenso, Mrs. Charles D. Ewer of Wilmette will give her interesting talk on "The Japanese Arrangement of Flowers." She illustrates her comments with beautiful examples of blooms arranged in delightful Japanese bowls and baskets.

Mrs. Albert O. Olson of Glencoe will also give a talk on the Club Institute. The place of meeting will be the Orington hotel.

Glencoe Cellist Plays Over WGN This Sunday

Phyllis Eileene Barry, Glencoe cellist, will give a group of six numbers, accompanied by Edwin Stanley Seder at the organ, Sunday, April 11, at 2 o'clock, at the Lyon and Healy studio, which will be broadcast by radio station WGN.

Miss Barry is cellist of the "Londonderry Trio" which is playing a concert engagement at the Palmer House for the Delta Sigma club of the University of Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Donald Corvin, 32 Warwick road, entertained 12 friends at a fancy dress party last Saturday night.

Mrs. M. C. Martin of 630 Rosewood avenue was expected to return to her home yesterday from a short trip to New York.

MILGRIM

600 Michigan Boulevard · South

A MILGRIM Creation featuring the small brim—produced in Green Felt with gros-grain ribbon and bow . . . $22.50

HATS by MILGRIM

In every detail MILGRIM MODES add to the effectiveness of the costume. The Scarf of Silver Grey Fox and the smart Hat give "elan" to the MILGRIM Tailored Suit.