Penfield, Busse Oppose Licenses for Roadhouses

In a copy of the Journal of Proceedings of the Board of Commissioners of Cook county, of the meeting of Monday, February 8, 1926, is one portion which is of interest to all voters who are in favor of the stand which the commissioners, including Frederick W. Penfield of Glencoe, have taken against the road houses. At the February 8 meeting of the board, the Public Service committee of that body made the following report:

"Your committee has considered the several applications for road house licenses, which are hereto attached and made a part of this report, (There were forty-four of these applications, three of which were applications for road houses at Glenview) and recommends that they be and by the adoption of this report are granted upon the payment of the prescribed fee in each case."

Commissioner Whealan moved that section 5 (the portion pertaining to the road houses) of the report of the Committee on Public Service be adopted.

On this vote the following Commissioners voted yes:

Bemis, Kavanaugh, Pelka, Ryan, Whealan, Wilson, President Cermak.—7.

Voting No were Commissioners Busse, Goodnow, Miller, Penfield, Pierson—5. Passed — Commissioner Kriz—1.

Non-Partisan Clubs Back Deneen Group

Endorsements by the non-partisan, Citizens Committee of 200: The Better Government association; The New Trier Committee of 700; and the Chicago Business Men's Republican committee have been placed upon the Deneen group candidates for President of The County board and for members of the board representing the country towns.

The candidates so endorsed are William Busse of Mt. Prospect, candidate for renomination as member of the board and for the nomination for president of the board; George A. Miller of Oak Park, F. W. Penfield of Glencoe, Dudley D. Pierson of Chicago Heights and Lachlan William MacLean of Evanston.

"Commissioner Busse has served twenty-four years on the County board including three and one half years as President," says the New Trier Committee of 700 in its endorsement, "his knowledge of county problems is invaluable."

George A. Miller, F. W. Penfield and Dudley D. Pierson are also members of the County board at present. Lachlan William MacLean has been associated with the affairs of the Forest Preserve district for seven years, the last five of which he has served as assistant chief forester. The experience gained by these men and their proven efficiency in the administration of county affairs was responsible for their endorsement.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Olson, 1000 Vine street, are expected home this week from California, where they have been for the past two months.

He's Most Liked Where He's Best Known

ARTHUR A. HUEBSCH

Republican Candidate for Senator from the Seventh Senatorial District

Is distinctly a people's man, best liked and most highly esteemed by those who have known him longest. His innate modesty and changeless loyalty to his friends and neighbors has stood the test of time. "His hat still fits." Art Huebsch, the popular attorney and man of affairs is the same loyal friend and good fellow that he was when a struggling law student whose star of hope burned brightly in a firmament of civic righteousness.

Art Huebsch, the Senator from the Seventh Senatorial District, will be the same plain good citizen, animated by the same spirit of sterling honesty and business integrity that has distinguished him during his career in this community. He's been tried in the crucible of hard luck and ground in the mills of adversity, but he's the same Art Huebsch whom you will elect to represent you in the State Senate.

A vote for Art Huebsch will be a vote cast in your own interest. This district needs many things that Art Huebsch can secure for us. Be assured of that. We have been long enough in the discard. Let us elect Huebsch and secure the legislative attention so long denied us.

Vote for Huebsch and Your Vote Will Count for You as No Other Vote Will
