Expert Predicts Unbearable Conditions This Summer Unless War on Pests Begins Early

Clouds of mosquitoes, sufficient to keep suburban folks barricaded behind screened doors and windows and to chase golf players off the greens were predicted for early summer by Edwin M. Skinner, director of Mosquito Control in the Metropolitan district of Chicago, for the agencies co-operating with the Gorgas Memorial Institute.

"The unseasonable snowfall is to blame," said Mr. Skinner. "It means that there will be plenty of surface water at a time when temperature should be high enough for prolific mosquito breeding. A rainy spring will aggravate conditions."

Must Begin Fight Early

"Unless suburban towns, villages and golf clubs begin to fight the pests early, conditions are apt to be extremely severe, with millions of mosquitoes thirsting for the blood that is necessary to mature their eggs."

"In the larger part of the metropolitan area, the clay and rock strata are very close to the surface, and there is little chance for sub-soil drainage by seepage. This means that the water liberated by the melting snow will lie for a considerable time on the surface in various pools.

Warm Spell Brings Swarms

"With the first warm temperatures the billions of mosquito eggs that have been hibernating all winter will be hatched. Great swarms of mosquitoes are to be expected as soon as the necessary temperature for development comes. They will keep on breeding in the surface pools as long as they persist. Afterward the mosquitoes will transfer their breeding activities to stagnant streams, storm-sewer catch basins, tin cans—anything that will hold water."

"Last year was only a 30 per cent mosquito year. Should 1926 have a great deal of moisture during late spring and early summer, and all conditions are favorable, much work will be required for ordinary self protection."

North Shore Art League to Show Work of Members

The North Shore Art league is planning a large exhibition of its producing members together with a dinner and a lecture to be held Thursday evening, April 15, at 6:30 o'clock. The affair will be held in the Rudolph Matz hall, at the Winnetka Community House.

James Cady Ewell has charge of the exhibition and is anxious that all the paintings to be shown are brought in promptly. Pictures and sculpture not before publicly exhibited must be at the Community House on Saturday, April 10, it is announced.

It is the desire of the directors of the league that the various woman's clubs co-operate. The paintings will remain on exhibition during the week and afternoons will be assigned to the various towns when the league will be host to the club members.

Many Winnetka Teachers Away During Vacation

Miss Marian Elwell, of the Horace Mann school, spent the vacation at Asheville, North Carolina. MURINE FOR YOUR EYES

Faithful Service of JOHN F. DEVINE

Republican Candidate for County Treasurer should insure his nomination.

John F. Devine, Republican Candidate for County Treasurer, has always given the best that was within him for the work that he had on hand. As a boy he worked in the rolling mill, but step by step he always proved that his heart was in his work and the best was the least that he would give.

He saved half a million dollars for the people of Cook County as Clerk of the Probate Court because his life history has been one of giving his best to his employer. The fact that the people of the County happened to be his employer did not change his nature, nor his desire or ability to serve them.

His opponent for the republican nomination for County Treasurer has a history of tax spending. His opponent is one of the defendants in the suit brought to recover the millions of dollars paid to so-called experts by the City of Chicago.

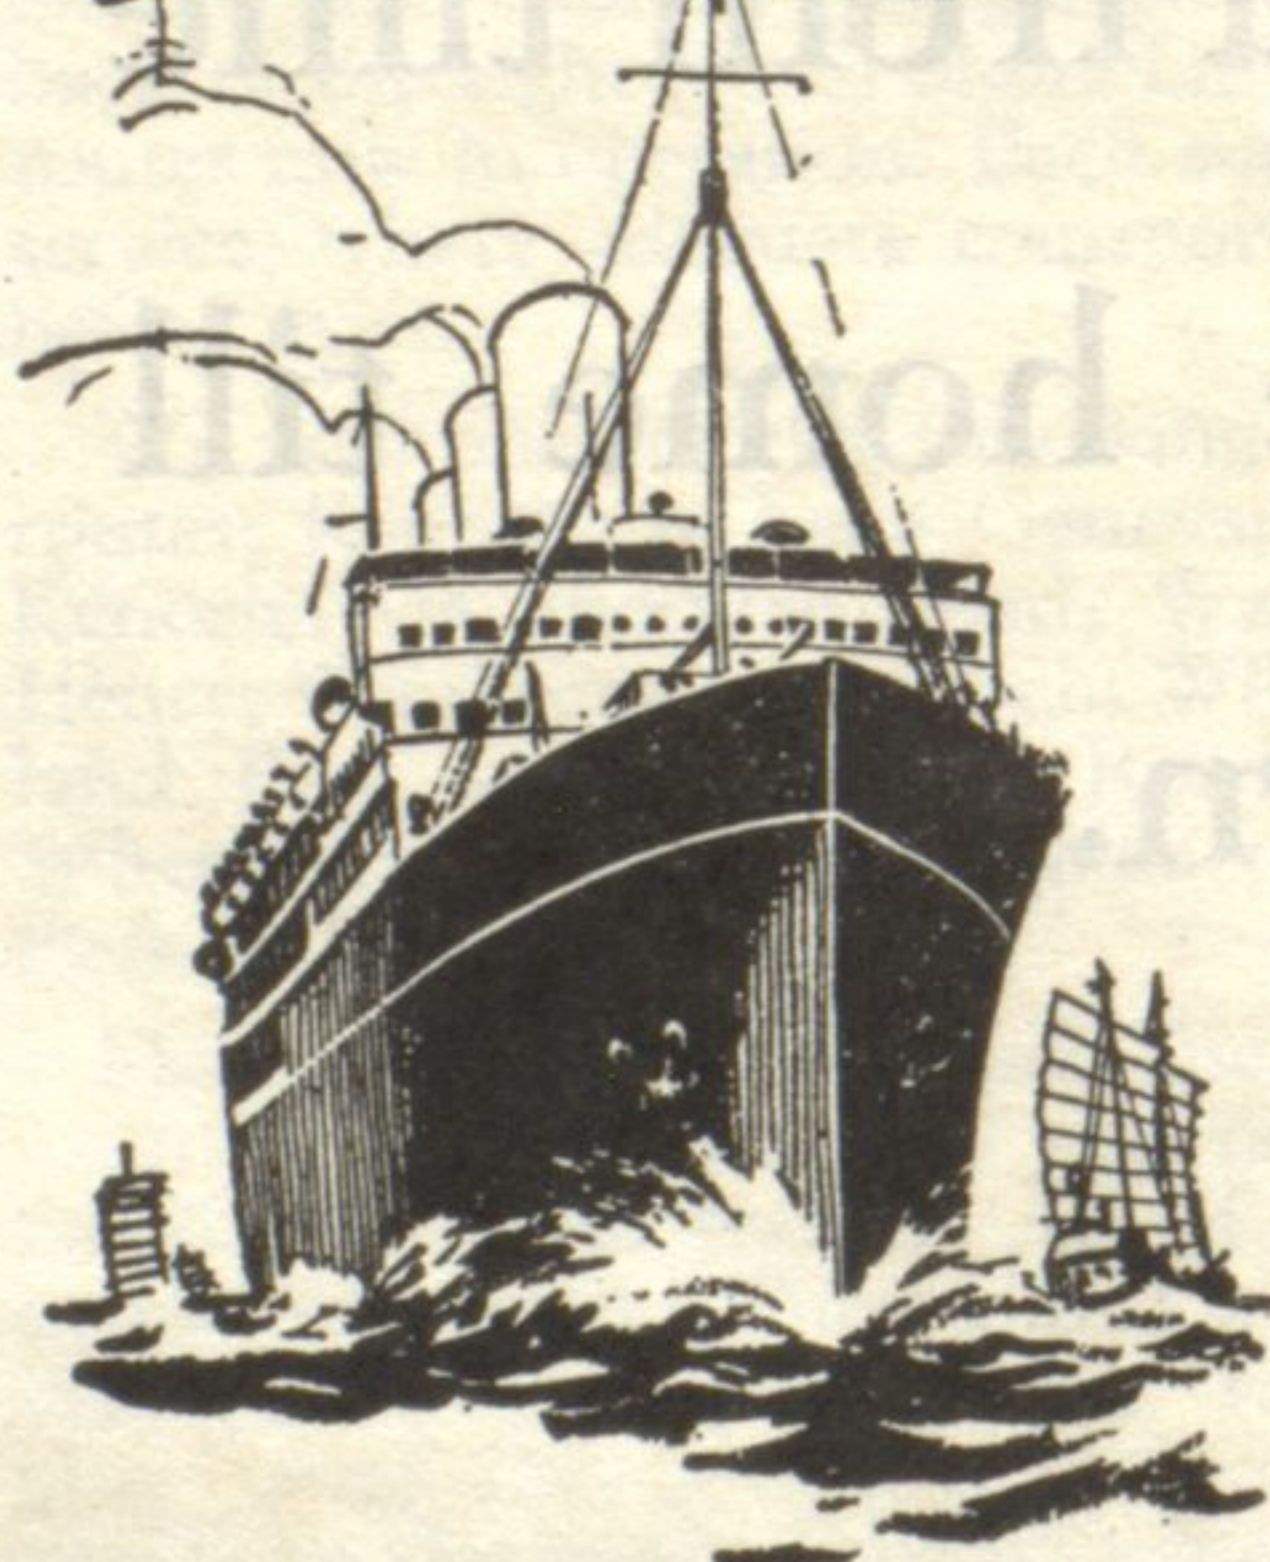

Contrast the record of John F. Devine with that of his millionaire opponent who desires to collect other people's taxes, but who allowed over two hundred thousand dollars in taxes and penalties to go unpaid, until just prior to election when he compromised with his friend, the States Attorney of Cook County, on a twenty-five per cent basis. The average home owner must pay his taxes in full. This millionaire candidate by political friendship can settle on a 25% basis. Should the entire County Treasurer's Office be now presented to him for further and greater manipulation? No wonder rents are high when other people must bear this rich man's burdens.

If the home owners and tax payers desire a man whose administration will insure decreased tax-burdens for themselves, their course is clear and certain. Their vote should be unanimous in the Republican Primary on April 13th for John F. Devine for County Treasurer.
