

SPEAKER FOR CLUB

Mexico and its Indians Vividly Depicted by Native at Woman's Club Meeting

At the Winnetka Woman's club Tuesday, April 6, Capt. Connelly, sanitary engineer with the United States government, spoke of the pathetic condition which still prevails in the Near East. It was impossible to have heard him without feeling keenly that America must care for these destitute children who are entitled to the joy of life, but who are so handicapped by circumstances.

Miss Kate Watkins Tibbals, who has conducted a class in short story writing under the art and literature committee of the club, read three delightful compositions written by her pupils. Any one of these works would have been a credit to a finished writer.

Miss Ellen Landazuri, a Mexican woman, who is taking post graduate work at the University of Chicago, was the speaker of the afternoon.

Miss Landazuri is devoting her life to the interest of the Indians of Mexico, who, she says, are artistic, introspective, philosophical people possessing a rich, internal life. She believes, with many others, that the Indian is from the Asiatic races, as certain dominating characteristics in common with the Chinese are outstanding. There is no racial distinction in Mexico, as Spaniard, Mexican, and Indian intermarry. There is, however, an economical distinction.

Miss Landazuri spoke enthusiastically of the beautiful churches in Mexico City, and of the small towns with low roofed, picturesque houses, and winding streets, all leading to the Plaza, where the young people meet and court.

Mrs. Arthur Cushman presided in the absence of Miss Ruth Matz.

Tea was served by the following hostesses:

Mrs. Heath Bannard, Mrs. Austin Jenkins, Mrs. Joseph Markley, Mrs. George Massey, Mrs. John Ritchie, and Mrs. J. M. Winscott.

Dan Connolly Is Now a Very Proud Grandpa

That unusually broad smile on Dan Connolly's face has a two-fold reason. He was very grateful for the large number of votes which he received in Tuesday's election but the arrival of Grandpa and Grandma Connolly's first grand-daughter, born at Evanston hospital last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. John Tait, of 2439 Cowper avenue, Evanston, was the greatest source of rejoicing.

Edna Baker Speaks to Parent-Teacher Group

At a Parent-Teacher meeting at the auditorium of the Horace Mann school, last Monday, Miss Edna Baker, president of the National Kindergarten college, spoke on "Problems in Behaviour, Their Cause and Their Remedy." Tea was served afterwards.

On Monday afternoon of this week the entire faculty of the Winnetka Public schools, the North Shore Country Day school and New Trier High school, paid a visit to the Marshall studio in Wilmette. The visitors enjoyed the trip immensely and are very grateful to Mrs. Anita Willets Burnham, of Hubbard Woods, who arranged it for them.

The past week has been more nearly normal, in the way of attendance at the Horace Mann school. There were few absentees on account of sickness, which had been making serious inroads on attendance records for several days.

SPEAKS ON DEMOCRACY

"Can Democracy Be Made Safe for the World?" will be the subject of the evening sermon by Rev. T. A. Goodwin, in the Congregational church tomorrow evening. Apropos of these election days Mr. Goodwin will discuss the question whether the democratic form of government is one on which to pin hopes of political progress.

Everything
Tastes So Good
at The Plaza!

LEAVE out of consideration for a moment all arguments about service, economy, atmosphere and the rest. . . .

There is one major reason for the transcendent popularity of The Library Plaza Cafeteria:

Surpassingly good food, wholesomely, appetizingly served—morning, noon, night!

Little wonder that thousands return to The Plaza again and again!
