Harvard Professor Will Lecture at Northwestern

"The Creative Imagination," will be the general topic of six lectures soon to be given at Northwestern university under the Norman Wait Harris Foundation by Professor John Livingston Lowes, chairman of the department of English at Harvard university. His general theme has been subdivided into six subordinate subjects, one of which will guide his remarks on each evening, starting Monday, April 19. The lectures will take place in Harris hall, Evanston campus of the university, and will continue until and including Saturday, April 24. The public is cordially invited. There will be no fee. The several sub-topics are as follows: Monday, April 19, "Chaos"; Tuesday, April 20 "The Deep Well, and Shaping the Spirit"; Wednesday, "The Fields of Ice, The Courts of the Sun, and the Journeying Moon"; Thursday, "The Bird and the Daemon"; Friday, "Wefts and Spectres, and the Known and Familiar Landscape"; Saturday, April 24, the final lecture, "The Vision in a Dream: Imagination Creatrix."

BRIDGE HOSTESS

While spending her spring recess from the University of Illinois at her home, Miss Doris Hanville of 840 Foxdale avenue entertained the following girls at bridge Saturday afternoon, April 3: The Misses Edith Bartleman, Alice Tiplady, Mildred and Virginia Johnson, Caroline Davis, Louise Clabaugh, Ethel May Sturgeon, Elizabeth Francoeur, Georgia Marks, Virginia Miller, and Alice Blakeslee.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Doonan, 586 Maple avenue, with their two children, have returned to their home in Winnetka. Mrs. Doonan and her children have been away for two months. Mr. Doonan joined his family in Florida and accompanied them to Havana, and home.

Mrs. W. B. Lucke and her son, William, and her daughter, Gertrude, have returned from a fortnight's stay in the South. Part of their time was spent visiting Mr. Lucke's relatives at Perdibo Bay, Ala., and the remainder, in Pensacola, Fla.

The Ernest C. vonAmmons have sold their home at 420 Elder lane, and expect to move into the house they are building on Elm street about the middle of May.

Mrs. Perry Dunlap Smith, 669 Walden road, has gone to New York to visit her family for a fortnight, and while enroute home, she will stop off in Boston and Detroit to visit friends.

Mrs. Kent Tenney and her two older sons are expected to arrive in Winnetka shortly to visit Mrs. Horace K. Tenney, 640 Pine street.

Miss Lois Coffin has just returned to her home in Winnetka, from Boston, where she had been visiting the parents of her fiance, Edward G. Lund.

Mrs. A. Milne Ramsey, 903 Cherry street, entertained a number of friends at a thimble party Tuesday afternoon, April 6.
