

Turn Time Back for Grown-ups at Church Frolic

(Contributed)

Backward, turn backward O, Time,
In your flight
And make me a kid again just for Tonight.

The old couplet (with slight variation so that the women folk might be included) was the slogan of all present at the Spring Frolic of the members and friends of the Winnetka Congregational church, Monday evening.

And Time did turn back. No one was over fourteen.

Agility was renewed, perceptions heightened, acquaintances strengthened, risibles exercised, friendships enjoyed and fellowship proved.

New games for old people and old games for new people resulted in a general frolicsome mix-up. The chariot race with Ayres Boal the winner and "Marty" Moon a close second, was a thriller not soon to be forgotten. James Fentress' delightful negro melodies which, like his own spirit, never grow old, were thoroughly enjoyed. And the comedia del arte, executed absolutely impromptu, was a plea of great charm and finish, the denouement being especially climatic. The rescue of Helen Davis, the heroine, from the storm, by Chief Davies, the hero, was cleverly executed.

And so on, one might enlarge indefinitely on the details of this fun and frolic party which was so successfully managed by our new leader and friend, Mr. Goodwin.
