Mrs. Richard R. Rowe

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wheelock, 132 Oxford road, Kenilworth, announce the marriage on Friday, April 9, of their daughter, Florence to Richard R. Rowe, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rowe, of Miami, Fla.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Matz will arrive from their home in Santa Barbara, Cal., sometime in May for a visit at the home of their mother, Mrs. Rudolph Matz.

Mrs. Melville C. Chatten, 1025 Dinsmore road, and Mrs. Chas. W. Pflager of Evanston, left Friday on the D. A. R. special train to attend the annual conference in Washington. They expect to be gone about ten days.

Women's Society Will Hear of Race Problems

(Contributed)

The last program of the World Friendship committee of the woman's Society of the Winnetka Congregational church comes Wednesday, April 21, at 10 o'clock. All the little garments must then have their last stitches. While that goes on, a new feature will be introduced. "The World Crier" gives the Aprils news. The noon fifteen minute devotional service will be led by Mrs. Fred Sterling.

A real treat will follow after luncheon. Mrs. Julian Clay Risk has consented to give a group of spring songs, which all will want to hear. Mrs. Cary B. Lewis then speaks on a most vital topic, "The Colored Woman and the Race Problem." Mrs. Lewis is a graduate of the University of Chicago, prominent in social agency work among her people, on the board of the Urban league, national president of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority for colored university women, and has organized a lyceum at Grace Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Emory Albright and their sons, Ivan L. Albright, and Malvin M. Albright, formerly of the Log House, Scott avenue, have returned to Warrenville, and have opened their church studio, which has been closed during the winter. Last October the Albrights motored to Florida and later to Philadelphia, where they have passed the winter months.

Anita Willets Burnham of Tower road will journey to Ludington, Mich. to give her well known travel talk before the Woman's Club of Ludington, Wednesday, April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Henkel of 653 Walden road, have been stopping at The Manor, Asheville, N. C.
