Your Rightful Share of the Profits

We feel that the public is greatly responsible for the success of improved real estate in central locations and should share in its enhancement of value and profits. It is for this reason that we offer to the people of Evanston and the North Shore participation in the ownership and profits of quality buildings in preferred locations according to the Carlson plan. The Carlson plan assures the investor his rightful share of the profits. The first issue offered under this plan is in

The ORRINGTON

Pupils See to It That Parents Vote

The Fifth grade at Horace Mann Public school, Winnetka, Mrs. Edith Woody, teacher, has been awarded a silk flag posted by Miss Hazel Hartwell, principal, to the room reporting the largest per cent in voting by the parents of the children of that particular room. The Fifth grade reported a 100 per cent record and thus received the award. The parents registered 54 out of a possible 54 votes.

New Trier Girls' Club Presents Art Exhibit

The Girls' club of New Trier High school gave an Art tea at which pictures by local artists were exhibited on Tuesday of this week. The club is to select one of the pictures as a gift to the school, following an annual custom which has been in force during the past three years. Among those artists who were exhibiting on this occasion were Frank C. Peyraud, James Cady Ingerle, Laura Van Pappelendam, Frank Whitney, Anna W. Lynch, Karl Buehr, Dudley Craft Watson, James Ewell, George Oberteuffer and Anita Willetts Burnham. The pictures will remain hanging in the main hall at New Trier until the picture to be given to the school is chosen.

Women Leaders Attend Tea in College Hall

The women of the governing board of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college were entertained at tea in Harrison hall last Monday afternoon, April 12. Gifts from individuals and organizations have made possible the very attractive furnishing of several of the class rooms and offices, and the members of the board, who have had an important part in this work, thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity of going through the new buildings.

Tea was served in the alumnae club room, Mrs. P. W. Bradstreet, of Winnetka, Mrs. George Groves of Evanston and Mrs. B. F. Langworthy of Winnetka, assisting. Mrs. Andrew MacLeish of Glencoe, and Mrs. W. T. Hall of Evanston, members of Miss Elizabeth Harrison's original mothers' classes, Mrs. Percy Eckhart of Kenilworth and Miss Jane Adams of Hull House, were among those present.
