

Don't Mention The Scores But Had a Fine Time

Two basketball teams of the Girls' Athletic club of Community House journeyed to Lake Forest Tuesday evening for return games Tuesday of Lake Forest college, the scores of which the local teams say it is not necessary to publish, but they are very desirous for everyone to know that they had a most delightful time.

The former games with the Lake Forest teams on the local court were also victories for the visitors and it was not with any anticipation of winning new laurels, in the way of victories, that the teams of the Girls' Athletic club matched these events with Lake Forest college, but rather for the pleasure and profit to be gained by meeting these highly efficient organizations, who are just now closing a most successful season in the way of victorious matches. The Winnetka girls will maintain their club organizations until next season and, with the start which they have made this year, anticipate some record games in their favor next year. The personnel of the teams who went to Lake Forest, Tuesday evening, follow:

First team—Harriet Nelson, captain; Dorothy Allen, Katherine Flinn, Lola Luensman, Marie Eckart and Florence Anthony.

Second team—Alice Austin, Louise Eckart, Florence Williams, Carol Fossum, Caroline Bolkow and Josephine Hill.

Calhoun county raises more apples than any other county in Illinois. It is the only county in Illinois wholly without railroads. It is a long, narrow, hilly neck of land lying between the Illinois and Mississippi rivers and depends largely on water transportation.

FIVE new refrigerator cars, being added to our present comprehensive merchandise equipment, are an innovation on railroads in this part of the country, being equipped with electric refrigerating machines and motor controls. Their cost is $16,400 apiece. It is the obligation of a railroad to furnish not only complete passenger service, but a convenient and dependable means of transporting the supplies that are essential to life and progress in the communities it serves.

106,000 delicious cups of coffee were served last year on North Shore Line dining cars. It's our own special blend—and it brings us daily compliments.

OUR supplementary motor coach service is growing constantly. We now operate eleven motor coach lines, and have found it necessary to construct a new $125,000 motor coach garage at Waukegan.

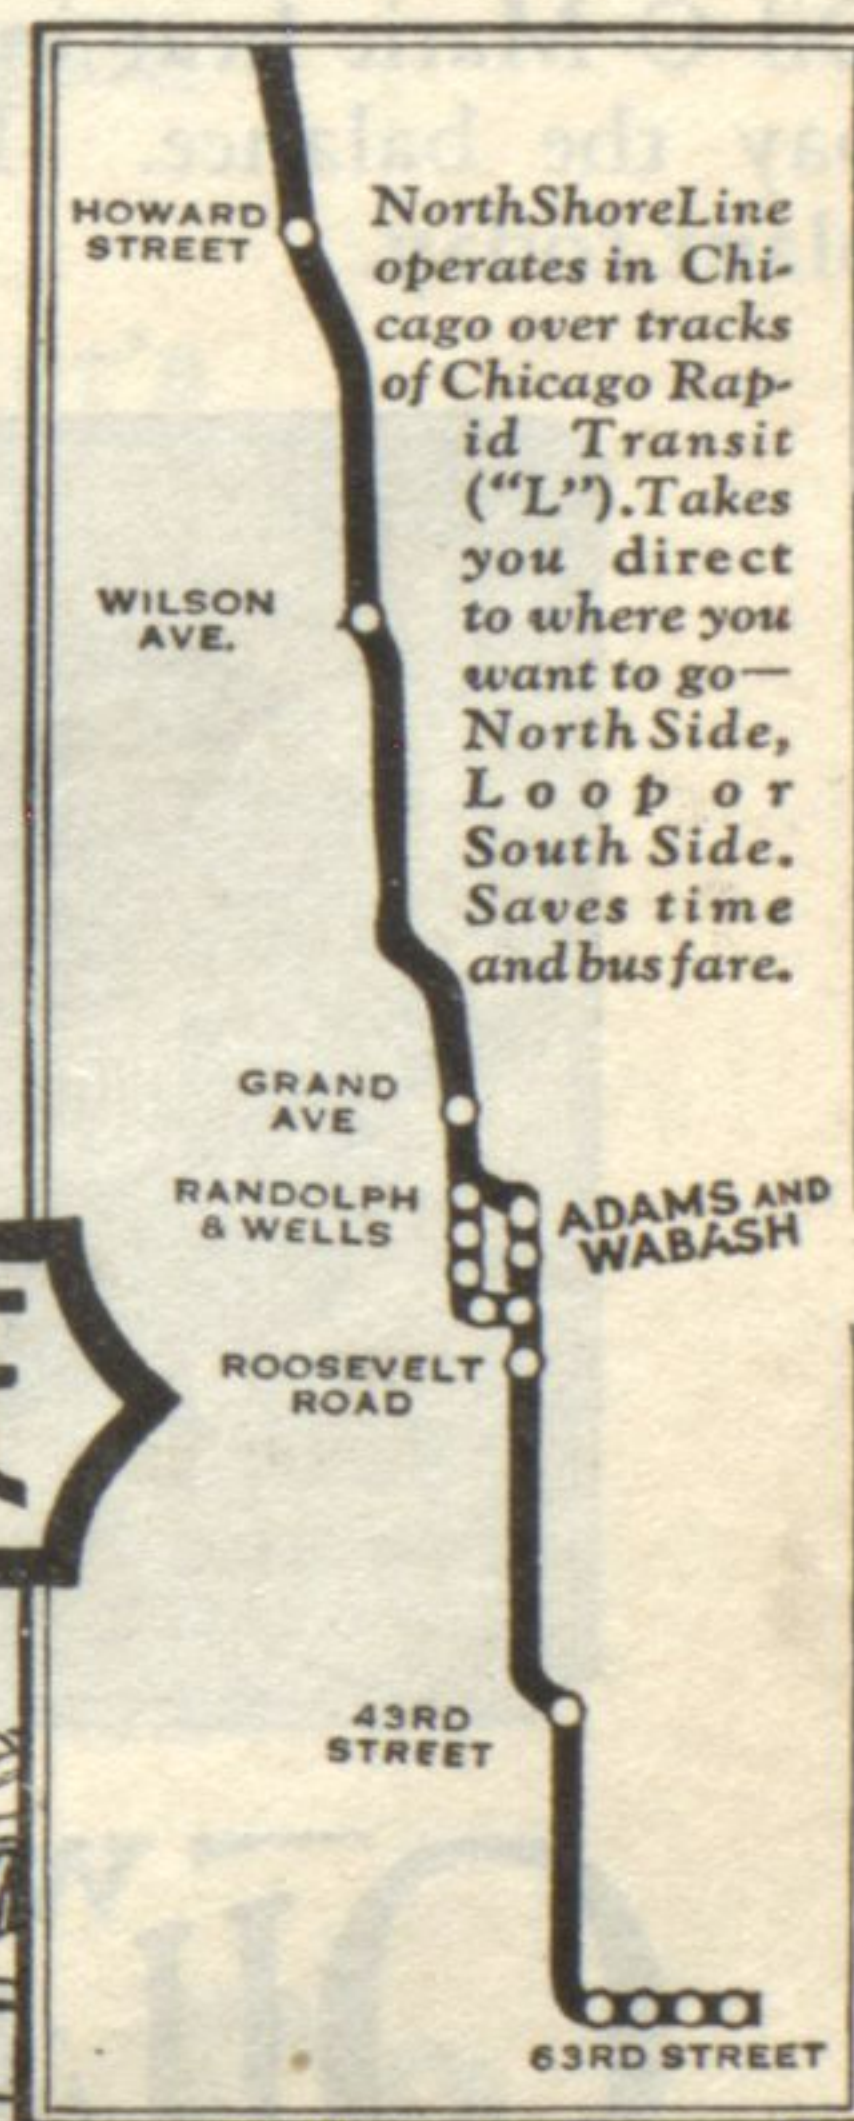

DO you know the total population of cities served by this high-speed electrically-operated railroad? It is four million.

DO you realize how large an investment is required to operate a railroad, with 115 miles of double track, giving service of the North Shore Line standard? Thirty-five million dollars has been permanently invested in this twenty-electrically-operated railroad. Twenty-two million dollars has been spent since 1916 when the road came under its present management.

Worth Thinking Over

EYESTRAIN itself is not serious. It's neglect however that is. Eyestrain is nerve-strain. You cannot go on forever wasting nerve-energy without ill effects. Oft-times the eyes themselves give no indication of trouble, yet pains over the eyes, or in back of the head, indigestion or irritable disposition may be the result. The most serious effects from continued neglect is a complete breakdown due to nerve exhaustion. Such cases are becoming alarmingly frequent.
