

New Trier Will Be Host to Men of the Township

The final Parent-Teacher association meeting of the current year will be held at New Trier High school at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 30. At 6:30 on that evening representative men's groups of the township will meet for dinner at the school in a testimonial board and officers of the high-school association. These groups will include among others the Glencoe Men's Club, Winnetka Rotary club, Wilmette Rotary club, Wilmette Optimist club, Wilmette Civic Luncheons club.

The specific purpose of the meeting of these organizations will be to demonstrate to members of New Trier township do appreciate their efforts on behalf of the high school. Entertainment will be furnished by various school musical and dramatic organizations.

Blind, Deaf and Dumb Girl Wonder Is Visitor

Miss Helen Martin, who has been visiting numerous schools throughout the country was a guest at Horace Mann school, during last Wednesday morning's assembly. Miss Martin is blind, deaf and dumb, yet, notwithstanding this fact, she has advanced in school work to the rank of a Junior in high school. She also plays the piano an unusual accomplishment, it is said, for one both blind and deaf; and demonstrated beautiful needle work and demonstrated the manner in which the blind write.
