WAR VETERAN DIES

Thomas Campbell, Member of Winnetka Legion Post Dies in Denver, Colo.

Thomas Campbell, son of Mrs. Nancy C. Campbell, 466 Chestnut street, and a member of Winnetka Post No. 10, American Legion, died at Denver, Colo., Sunday night. And thus, it may be said, another of America's sons gave his life for the cause in which the great overseas expedition was organized.

Funeral services, with military honors, were conducted from St. Margaret Mary's Catholic church, 7318 Elmwood avenue, Chicago, Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Burial was at Calvary cemetery, where a firing squad from Winnetka Post, comprising Raymond Orwig, Myron T. Harshaw, Edward R. Lewis, Earl J. Stults, Gene Greco, Clarence Schaefer, Hazen Foster, Fred Richardson and Thomas J. Lynch, and a bugler from the Army Post at Fort Sheridan, performed the military rites. The pallbearers, also members of Winnetka Post were, Gene Matteoni, George McKinney, John Odh, George Austin, Harold Voltz and William Kirby.

Mr. Campbell was 30 years of age. He was born and reared at Highland Park, but Winnetka had been the family home for the past eight years. In June, 1917, at Highland Park, Mr. Campbell enlisted in the United States Navy, serving in the Armed Guard service. He was overseas six times, touching various ports in England, Italy, France and South America.

He came out of the service in broken health, and soon thereafter entered the Fresh Air hospital at Howard and Western avenues, Chicago. About a year ago he went to Colorado, where, for a time it was thought he had found permanent relief, but the improvement in his condition was of short duration.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, his mother, one brother, Ernest Campbell, of 645 Sheridan road, Winnetka, and one sister, Mrs. Bertha Antion, residing at Eagle Rock, Cal.
