

Engage Rooms for State Convention of Women's Clubs

The local board, Mrs. William Franklin Farrell, chairman for the State Convention, to be held May 18-21, at Edgewater Beach hotel, Chicago, has been busy the last week arranging for rooms for convention purposes. All rooms are located in south end of hotel which are to be given over to convention use. Miss Mollie McEniry of Moline, chairman of credentials committee, will be located in the Berwyn room, and books will be open May 17 from 3:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon, and from 8:30 Tuesday, May 18, until 3:00 on Wednesday.

Polls will be open at 8:30 Thursday until 12:00 for election of president, second vice-president, and general federation director.

In the foyer leading to Assembly room, there will be desks for in formation bureaus, Post Office, for press exhibit, and the official magazine, the Illinois Clubwoman's World.

Room 188 is for press correspondents, room 190 A, will have exhibit of work made by pupils of the Park Ridge School for Girls under the direction of Mrs. R. W. Richards, state chairman.

Room 190 R. is set aside as a rest room and will be in charge of the Health committee under direction of the health chairman of the local board. The West room will house the Art exhibit, under direction of Mrs. Charles W. Leigh, state chairman. Pictures by Illinois artists will be featured as well as posters by eighth grade entries in the "Spirit of Play" contest for which the Art department is offering prizes. Articles made by World War veterans will also be displayed in this room.

Mrs. Harry Stotlar of Benton, chairman of the American home department, was in town last week selecting rooms for the model home exhibit. These rooms will be on the second floor of the hotel and will be open for inspection by club women the entire week of convention.

Wednesday afternoon at 4:45 there will be a Co-operation with War Veterans Department tea in the West room presided over by Miss Marion Hoffman, state chairman.

There will be a motor corps for convenience of visiting members under chairmanship of Mrs. Burnett D. Warner, 1423 Rascher avenue, of the ninth district.

Mrs. Albert E. Pierce of 550 Cedar street, her baby son, and her mother, Mrs. Wilmot Townsend, returned Monday from a month's sojourn in Biloxi, Miss. and Hot Spring, Ark.

E. C. Weissenberg of Elm street and F. W. Sheahan of Highland Park, left last week for a short trip to Hot Springs, Ark., Biloxi, and New Orleans.

Wilmette Golf Club Has 1926 Inaugural Day

Heeding the announcement by Professional Dave Pattullo that the course is in fine shape, officers of the Wilmette Golf club have decided to stage a formal opening Thursday of this week. Regular play is scheduled to begin this Saturday.

An informal roundup dinner held Thursday night at which new members were welcomed and the old guard viewed the many changes made during the winter in clubhouse accommodations. These include a new locker room, with showers, a new lounge and card room and improved dining room and kitchen facilities.

The following officers and committee chairmen have been elected for 1926: C. A. Rich, president; William H. Hannsman, vice president; Schuyler Harvey, secretary; C. M. Parrish, assistant secretary; H. L. Paxton, treasurer; George E. Gallaher, chairman house committee; H. E. Logan, handicaps; Dr. R. L. Lassater, sports and pastimes; E. R. Neir, grounds.
