Reader at Spring Luncheon

Erma Blaine McKendry a well known dramatic reader, will give a group of poems and a one-act play at the Spring luncheon of the Woman's club of Wilmette which is to be held Wednesday, May 5, at the Edgewater Beach hotel. She will be remembered for her splendid acting in "The Pelican," recent Theatre Guild production. Possessing a great dramatic power, beautiful voice, and charm, Mrs. McKendry interprets the finest in literature and art. Her programs are always a delight to her audiences.

Another artist of distinction on this program will be Frederick Newell Wood, one of Chicago's leading tenors. Catherine Wade Smith, violinist will also give a group of numbers. She was a soloist with the Symphony Players this season.

Reservations for the luncheon are to be made with Mrs. E. D. Fuchs, 1043 Chestnut street.

Festival Soloist

When the Chicago North Shore Festival opens at Evanston, May 24, the second concert of the series of six—this will be given May 25—will bring to the north shore Ossip Gabrilowitsch, who will play in a Tschai-kowsky program the piano concerto by the Russian master.

Mr. Gabrilowitsch shares with Frederick Stock the distinction of being one of the busiest music-makers in the land; for he is not only a superlatively gifted piano virtuoso, but the conductor of the Detroit Symphony orchestra and of the choral organization in connection with the orchestra. As a pianist Gabrilowitsch is regarded as the principal living interpreter of Tschai-kowsky—a fact which is not surprising when it is remembered that he, too, is a Russian and a pupil of the Petrograd Conservatory before he became, with Paderewski, the most famous student of Lechetizky.

In addition to the concerto by Tschai-kowsky the program will contain the Russian's master's F minor symphony and the "Nut-cracker" suite, both of which will be played by the Chicago Symphony orchestra directed by Mr. Stock.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson, who have resided in Chicago, have purchased a house in Winnetka and are moving to their new abode this week.
