

Ravinia Club Will Entertain Committees at Luncheon on May 7

The Ravinia club will entertain all the members of the various committees and the following members of the Glen-coe committee at luncheon Friday, May 7, at 1 o'clock, at the Moraine hotel, Highland Park: Mrs. George E. Orr, chairman, Mrs. Harold E. Foreman, vice-chairman; Mrs. Oscar J. West, secretary; and Mesdames Auguste Babize, A. C. Bull, Henry C. Burnett, Harry C. Champlin, Frederick E. Clarke, Ralph D. Cushman, Edward Friedlander, Donald M. Gallie, Jr., A. C. Goodnow, John A. Grant, Charles F. Henning, Walter C. Hughes, Louis G. Hoffman, E. W. Maechtle, Frank McKeegan, Charles F. Pearce, Francis J. Sherwin, and John T. Stringer.

The Ravinia club and its numerous committees is a large and energetic organization. Its task is the selling of ticket books up and down the north shore and in town. So assiduously do the committees labor, that few can escape them. Mrs. Ralph H. Poole of Lake Forest is president of the club.

Louis Eckstein devotes practically his entire spare time to Ravinia, securing artists and planning the details of the season's programs. On this occasion he will outline the plans for the Ravinia opera and concerts for the coming season. The artists engaged, it is stated, and the operas to be produced during the summer of 1926, will excel even the season of 1925 in artistic value.

Skokie School Instructor Joins Adventure Campers

Frank Bailey of the Skokie school has joined the staff of Adventure Island Boys' Camp, according to Director Charles A. Kinney, and will have charge of the land sports during the coming summer. Mr. Bailey is an experienced camper, as well as having had a wide experience in organizing and directing activities of boys. During the past two years he was director of the University of Michigan's camp for boys.

Mr. Kinney is spending several days on Adventure Island, where he has a force of men at work, in preparation for the coming season. This year he plans to open camp early in June for those boys who have completed their school work.

SEND BOY TO CAMP

The Winnetka Rotary club proposes to finance the cost of sending a worthy boy to the Indian Hill camp this summer. This camp is directed by J. W. F. Davies, director of Community House, and is one of the outstanding summer activities of the center.

Lusk Gives Concert in Belgian Palace

The magnificent royal palace in which King Albert, the present ruler of Belgium, lived for several years, which was later the residence of the German governor general of Belgium during the World war and now occupied by the United States ambassador, was the scene of a delightful evening recital on April 10 by the noted violinist, Milan Lusk, now on a concert tour of Europe. In a fine form, Lusk completely captivated his audience including many distinguished diplomats, among them the Hon. William Phillips, United States ambassador to Belgium. His playing was marked by a beautiful lyric and as usual with much feeling. Mr. Lusk was assisted by the leading pianist-accompanist of Brussels, M. Eaille Wilmars.
