is superintending the construction of this model home and manages Glenview Borders properties for a syndicate, composed of North Shore Golf Club members with whom you will be pleased to make your future home.

Change School Assembly Into Medieval Market

The boys and girls of the Hubbard Woods school will give their annual bazaar and puppet show, at the assembly hall, Friday, May 7, at 2 o'clock. The Sixth graders have been studying the middle ages in history, and will turn the assembly hall into an "old market place." The mothers in the Parent-Teacher association, under the direction of Mrs. Warren Schoemaker, will serve tea in the tea garden. Toys, baskets, bags, towels, handkerchiefs, porch pillows, and many other articles made by the children, will be on sale. The Fifth graders will give the puppet show, Hansel and Gretel. Anyone residing in the village will be welcome.

Hubbard Woods Pupils Present Greek Drama

A large number of pupils from the Horace Mann, Greeley and Skokie schools attended a play at Hubbard Woods school, Tuesday afternoon of this week, given by the pupils of Mrs. Claire Bernhard's room, in connection with their history work. It was a very clever piece of work. The children are being congratulated upon the excellent preparation and presentation of "The Trick of Hermes," a Greek play, written by the children of the room who also designed and made the costumes, scenery, etc. The proceeds were for the dramatic fund.

AT P. T. CONGRESS

Mrs. L. L. Kimball of Evanston, social director of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, attended the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers at Champaign-Urbana this week. The meetings of the Congress were held in the new auditorium of the Agricultural building of the University of Illinois on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

MUSIC GUILD MEETS

King of Springfield and Miss Esther Livingston of Joliet were united in marriage, Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Samuel McCaulley, 919 Burr avenue, Winnetka, the Rev. James Austin Richards of the Winnetka Congregational church performing the ceremony.

WASHING

Let us give your car a good thorough bath in our washing machine. We'll remove every bit of dirt and grease and return it to you spotlessly clean.

SIMONIZING

A good job of simonizing will not only renovate your car, but it will also protect its finish. It will also give it a beautiful, lasting gloss.
