Sunday Club News

At the meeting of the Winnetka Sunday Evening club, April 24, Allen Pierce, of Evanston, reviewed "The Professor's House," by Willa Cather. Mr. Pierce gave a summary from criticisms the book had received, a short resume of the plot, and then read short selections from the book, which summed up the characters in the story. Next Sunday, May 2, Gordon VanKirk, of the English faculty of New Trier Township High school, will give a reading of "Enoch Arden," by Alfred Noyes Tenneson.

Sawdust and Ever'thing at This Great Circus

Were you there? If not, you certainly missed the jolliest circus ever put on by a group of enthusiastic boys. It was held in the Young's garage back of their home at 708 Prospect street last Saturday, where the boys have made a regular circus ring with a sawdust track and rug in the center. This group of vivacious boys, who call themselves the Boys' club, includes Chandler and Hobart Young, Richard La Fleur and Arthur Henning. The boys gave one-half the receipts of this performance to the poor children and are planning another and a better circus which they expect to put on in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Busscher, 1468 Scott avenue, Hubbard Woods, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday April 17. They entertained about 100 of their friends from the north shore and Chicago at dinner in honor of the event.

YASSA BOSS, Y'ALLS GONNA SEE SOME SHOW

Winnetka Legionnaires Now in Rehearsal for Big Minstrel
Show May 12 and 13

"We don't claim to be good but we do claim to be funny," says Mistah Thomas Joshua Lynch, general chairman of the Minstrel organization of Winnetka Post No. 10, American Legion, whose training is rounding out in good form for the show which will be given May 12 and 13.

Jack Higgins, who put on similar shows for the Ouilmette Country club and the Lake Forest Post of the American Legion with such gratifying success, has the local black face comedians in hand. He is also training the Ouilmette club members for another show on May 6 and 7.

So efficient are members of the cast from Winnetka Post becoming under his able leadership, it is even prophesied by some that by the time of the show dates they will have passed beyond the amateur stage into the Professional class. Who can tell?

A little inside information is being divulged to verify the foregoing prediction, by giving a few of the names of some of the cast, such as Past Adjutant Raymond Hezekiah Kloefer, Vice Commander Arthur Cunning Fellow Gedge, Adjutant Robert Washington Hoeffler, Mistah William McKinley Kirby, Mistah Daniel Boone Noe, Mistah Proal Rastus Judson, and others, equally prominent in local Post circles.

There will also be a number of "High Grade" specialties, such as Lee Adams in his famous One-Man Orchestra act, on the Bombas.

There will also be provided the best music available for both the show and the dancing which will follow the entertainment each evening. The show will be at Matz hall, Community House, May 12 and 13. The program will run from about 8:30 to 9:45 p. m., followed by dancing.

Sells Tickets Today

Tickets will go on sale May 1, by members of the Post and the various business houses throughout the village. Beginning May 10, these tickets will be exchanged for reserved seat tickets at the Lee Adams Pharmacy, Elm and Linden. An even exchange will be made except in the event one of the reserved seats is desired, when the difference may be paid.

The proceeds of the show, on both dates, will be for The Post.

PLAN ROMAN DAY

The pupils of Mrs. Edna Woods' room at Horace Mann school, in connection with their study of Roman history, are preparing for a Roman day. For one day they will have school as the Romans had it. Costumes are being made for the event; parafin filled frames backed by Roman designs; and the stylus, with which to write, "an ever'thing."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Haviland, of 102 Church road, accompanied by Mr. Haviland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Haviland, of Kansas City, Mo., are spending the week-end with Fred Haviland, Jr., at Howe school, Howe, Ind. They are motoring, and upon their return, the Havilands will remain for an extended visit at their son's home in Winnetka.

Mrs. Leslie Craven, 381 Elder lane, had as her guest the past week her father, Mr. J. J. Donovan and her brother, Mr. J. N. Donovan, of Bellingham, Wash. She entertained at dinner for them on Thursday night.
