"Peter and Judas" Is Evening Sermon Topic

"Peter and Judas" will be the theme of the evening sermon by the Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, at the Winnetka Congregational church, on May 2. The complete choir will sing. The music numbers for the evening service follow:

Violin and organ prelude, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Brewer; Processional hymn, 375, "Day Is Dying"; An anthem, "From Heaven High," traditional XIV century, by the choir; Offertory anthem, "Holy Father Cheer Our Way," (Huhn) by the choir; Solo, by Mrs. Locke; Violin obligato, Mrs. Brewer.

Harmonica Musicians to Be Heard Sunday Night

Miss Jean Hislop, director of lower school music in the Winnetka public schools, has been conducting harmonica orchestras in each of the lower schools, and on Sunday evening at Community House an orchestra composed of players from each of the three schools will participate in the program.

SPONSORS BENEFIT BRIDGE

Mrs. Hathaway Watson for Indian Hill is one of the sponsors for the invitation afternoon bridge on May 10, which Mrs. Larry Whiting is giving at her home on Lake Shore drive, the proceeds of which will replenish the treasury of Emerson House. This community settlement is one whose activities, aside from its Day nursery, are many and varied.

U. S. S. REPUBLIC Will Carry Boys Home

"GREAT STUFF"

That's the report from most of the boys who are working in the "On to Europe" campaign. And three of the boys will make the trip.

There is still ample time for any other boy in New Trier High School to enter this campaign and earn one of these trips.

If he don't earn the trip he will have a nice little check for vacation time.

Register at Room 205 any afternoon after 3:30 P. M.
