THE BRIM becomes more important as summer approaches and well-dressed women are beginning to wear the wide-brimmed Hat. Come in and try one on . . . you will be delighted with the smart effect it gives and you will also enjoy a change if you have been wearing only the small hats of late.

You'll always find the newer hats at Lord's — those just peeping over the fashion horizon—as well as the more conservative styles. And usually just a little lower priced than you expected to find them.

You'll find all the newer large brimmed hats in both dressy and tailored styles; in the favorite viscas, ballibuntls, Bangkoks, hairbriads, leghorns, lace and maline combinations. $5.50 to $20.

Commemorate 107 Years of Lodge in United States

By A. H. H.

On Thursday evening, April 29, A. T. Sherman lodge, No. 892, I. O. O. F., celebrated the 107th anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in America. A very interesting and entertaining program was carried out in the large hall of the Odd Fellow's building in Wilmette, before a representative crowd of Odd Fellows, Rebekahs, their relatives, and friends. Music for the occasion was furnished by Kerr's orchestra. The Imperial quartet delighted the audience with a number of selections, all of which were heartily enjoyed. The principal address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. O. F. Jordon, of Park Ridge, a member of Evanston lodge, No. 673.

In the course of his interesting and instructive address Mr. Jordon traced briefly the history of the order, from its establishment on April 26, 1819, in the city of Baltimore, Md., by Thomas Wildey, the founder, and four other members of the English order. Mr. Jordon told how the American order grew by leaps and bounds during the century following, until today it numbers over two and one-half million members in the United States. His remarks were interspersed with many witticisms and clever anecdotes, in illustration of his statements, and his audience listened in rapt attention and with intense interest during his entire discourse.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments were served in the lodge hall.

The entertainment committee has planned to hold a final card and bunco party in the lodge halls Thursday evening, May 13.
