Sunday School of Kenilworth Union Church Pays Tribute to Veteran Superintendent

John Benham, 165 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, who celebrated his 80th birthday Monday, May 3, was accorded an impressive reception at the Sunday school of the Kenilworth Union church last Sunday in recognition of his completion of 60 years as a Sunday school worker in Chicago and vicinity. Mr. Benham is at present superintendent of the Sunday school at the Union church.

Sunday's reception included a procession of 80 small girls each carrying a rose, and 80 small boys each carrying a penny, preceded by an escort conveying a large birthday cake.

Mr. Benham also received telegrams and greetings from Sunday school leaders in many places.

In addition to his affiliations with various Sunday schools, Mr. Benham was associated with the Cook county Sunday school association for 30 years. He was at one time president of the Illinois Sunday School association and was for five years a member of the board of the Chicago Central branch of the Y. M. C. A. Since coming to Kenilworth he has been actively connected with the Sunday school of the Union church and since 1918 has been superintendent. During his administration the average attendance has increased from 100 to 200 pupils.

Monday of this week Mr. Benham was honored at a special meeting of the Union League club in Chicago, which organization he joined 45 years ago.

Catholic Daughters Hold Annual Communion Sunday

Sunday, May 9, has been announced as annual Communion Sunday for the Catholic Daughters of America at St. Joseph's church. Mass will be celebrated at 8 o'clock in the morning with the Rev. Neumann, chaplain of the local court of the order, as celebrant. He will also give the sermon.

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock Wilmette Court, No. 848, will join Rosary Court, Lady of the Lake and University Court in joint initiation ceremonies at the Edgewater Beach hotel. A banquet will follow at 6:30 o'clock. Anna Magensen, grand regent, and Elsie Schmitt, vice regent, will take part in the degree work Sunday afternoon.

HEAR BOYS' CHORUS

At the music festival on Sunday a group of boys from the North Shore Country Day school sang a chorus of the Peers from the opera, "Iolanthe," which the school had presented somewhat more than a week ago.
