

PLAN GREAT TRIBUTE

Middle West to Observe Sesquicentennial With Great Pageant in Chicago July 1-7

The Middle West will pay tribute to the nation on the occasion of its sesquicentennial anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence with a gigantic production "The Birth of Chicago" to be staged at Chicago's new stadium, Soldier's Field, July 1 to 7.

Five hundred full blooded Iroquois, Sioux, Objway and Chippewa Indians will take part in the spectacle which will be the first of its kind ever attempted. The redskins will be aided by 200 troops from Fort Sheridan and a ballet of one hundred dancing girls.

Historic old Fort Dearborn will again hold the front on the shore of Lake Michigan and painted savages, descendants of the warriors who participated in the tragic massacre at the old stockade, will reenact the fray.

A mountain will be erected at the stadium down the sides of which the copperskins will ride to attack the early settlers in their small caravans of rudely constructed covered wagons.

A replica of the Chicago river and several strips of woodland will be constructed for use in the presentation.

The life of the "First American" before the coming of the whites; the ingress of the paleface; the hardships of the first trappers, traders and missionaries; the rebellion of the reds; the Fort Dearborn massacre and the final subjugation of the powerful red race all will be depicted.

Vice-President Charles G. Dawes will address the audience at the evening performance, July 4 and Secretary of Labor, James J. Davis, will give the address the evening of July 5.

Mrs. H. M. Anning,
Church Leader,
Taken by Death

Mrs. Herbert M. Anning, a former resident of Winnetka, widely known and greatly beloved here, died at the North Shore sanitarium Wednesday morning, May 5.

Mrs. Anning had only returned from California very recently, and her death came as a shock to her friends hereabouts. She had been an invalid for several years, and had lost her husband about a year ago. She is survived by one son, who remains in California.

Mrs. Anning was a tireless and most efficient helper in all the women's work of the Congregational church. She was for many years a beloved teacher in the primary department of the Church school, a friend and lover of all the boys and girls of the neighborhood, a generous friend to all who needed her help and good cheer.

There will be many unknown lads and men and women, who will think gratefully of her cheery friendship. "Blessed are they who die in the Lord, for their works do follow them."
