NOTABLES PAY VISIT TO SCHOOL FOR BLIND

Hadley Correspondence School Given Inspection by Leader in Work Among Blind

Evidence of the growing reputation of The Hadley Correspondence School for the Blind has come in several forms during the last few weeks.

Last week, the school received a visit from a distinguished gentleman, Prof. J. A. Benshahar, Ph. L., of Geneva, Switzerland, president general of the World Union of Associations for the Blind, Inc. Professor Benshahar is making a world tour visiting places where work for the blind is carried on, and said he had made a special point of coming to Winnetka to visit the Hadley school.

Another visitor this week was Miss Adelia M. Hoyt, national head of the department of work for the blind of the American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

The Hadley Correspondence school is the subject of one of the papers to be presented at the annual meeting of the Kansas association for the Blind, to be held at Kansas City, Kansas, May 29-31.

On Speaking Tour

Early in June William A. Hadley, founder of the school will address the Alumni association of the Illinois school for the Blind, at the annual banquet at the school in Jacksonville, Ill.

On June 22, Mr. Hadley will speak at the biennial convention of American Instructors for the Blind, to be held at Nashville, Tenn.

Patrons will be interested to learn that the work is growing rapidly. The school has extended its office space, and now occupies the whole of the second floor at 584 Lincoln avenue.

Like Insurance Course

There is considerable activity in the new Life Insurance course. As mentioned recently, one man is already selling insurance. Two other students have completed the course, and their appointments as agents are pending.

A recent investigation disclosed the fact that the average age of Hadley students is 38. The age ranges extensively, the youngest student being a boy of 16, the oldest a man of 80.

During the summer the school hopes to put in one or perhaps two new courses.

Invite Young People to Michigan Summer Camps

Young people of the Winnetka Congregational church are making plans to attend one of the summer conference camps at Tower Hill, Mich., where for a week in June and a week in July some 150 young people from Illinois churches get together for a season of work, play and fellowship. The Rev. Thomas A. Goodwin, who is to be dean of the first camp again this year, June 16 to 22, will be glad to answer any questions about the camp, it is announced.

WILL SELL POPPIES

Marcus D. Richards, chairman of Poppy Day announces that the following Winnetka women will help the American Legion in selling poppies May 28: Mesdames Frank Blatchford, Ayres Boal, A. Lee Adams, William Ogden Coleman, George W. Perrizo, Elliot Fisher, Ernest Ellis, Fred Richardson, Richard H. Fairclough, Thomas Lynch, Harold Lynn, R. N. Puetz, Marcus Richards, and Miss Lucia Perrigo.

Residents are urged again to buy poppies in their own town.

Wilson Decamp, 615 Abbottsford road, left Kenilworth Wednesday to attend a track meet at Kemper Military academy, Booneville, Mo. He will remain there for a few days' visit. He was formerly a student at the academy.
