Catholic Daughters Induct New Members at Ceremony May 9

Ouilmette court, No. 848, of the Catholic Daughters of America joined University, Rosary and Lady-of-the-Lake courts of the order in initiation ceremonies at the Edgewater Beach hotel Sunday, May 9. Twenty-seven candidates were added to the roster of the Ouilmette membership. A banquet was served at 7 o'clock, with places for ninety-five guests.

Miss Marguerite Martinez acted as general chairman for the evening. Mrs. Mary Sbertali was toastmistress and the speakers of the evening were the Rev. James P. Kiley, who spoke of the approaching Eucharistic Congress; the Rev. Eugene McGuinness, and the Rev. R. Bernan, whose subjects pertained to Mother's Day. Little Miss Catherine Maier gave several interesting readings, Miss Virginia Zimmer offered several vocal selections, and Miss Mary Flynn entertained with comedy sketches. Mrs. Helen Meagher gave a talk concerning the Catholic Daughters of America.

Members of Ouilmette court were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Elsie Schmidt at St. Francis hospital early Monday morning. Mrs. Schmidt was vice grand regent of the order and a tireless worker in the organization.

GIVES ALUMNAE TEA

Mrs. Edwin Hedrick of 304 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, will entertain the alumnae association of Columbia College of Expression at tea Saturday, May 15.

Mrs. J. E. Replogle of Oak street entertained about 30 friends at a dancing party in the ballroom in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Grant, 3222 Washington boulevard, last Saturday evening.

OPERA STARS RETURN

Favorite Artists All Re-engaged for Next Season of Chicago Civic Opera Company

Gratification will be felt by many regular opera patrons over the announcement that the principal favorites of the Chicago Civic Opera Company have already been re-engaged for next season.

The list includes Giorgio Polacco as Musical Director; Roberto Moranzoni and Henry G. Weber, conductors; Toti Dal Monte, Mary Garden, Alice d' Hermanoy, Florence Macbeth, Edith Mason, Claudia Muzio, Graziella Pareto and Rosa Raisa in the soprano section.

Maria Claessens, Anna Correnti, Augusta Lenska, Irene Pavloska and Cyrena Van Gordon have been re-engaged for the mezzo soprano and contralto section.

Nine popular tenors, Fernand Anseau, Antonio Cortis, Charles Hackett, Forrest Lamont, Charles Marshall, Jose Mojica, Lodovico Oliviero, Theodore Ritch and Tito Schipa, will again be with the organization next season.

Richard Bonelli, Desire Deferre, Cesare Formichi, Gildo Morelato and Giacomo Rimini have been re-engaged for the baritone section.

The excellent basso group, Edouard Cotreuil, Alexander Kipnis, Virgilio Lazzari, Antonio Nicolich and Vittorio Trevisan, will be retained as an entirety.

Negotiations are pending with other artists who have sung with the company in the past and with many new singers who are regarded as promising material for the Civic Opera.

Mrs. E. H. Wilder, 687 Hill road, returned last Monday evening from a vacation of five weeks spent in Tryon, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Hunter, 316 Sheridan road, have sold their home and are now stopping at the Orrington hotel.
