

Country Day Director to Address Conference

Perry Dunlap Smith, head master of the North Shore Country Day school, is to give a talk at the annual conference of the association of Country Day schools, in June. The special subject of his discussion here will be, "The Parent-Teacher Association," certain features of the local organization having attracted the special interest of workers in the Country Day field. He is also to deliver a lecture and conduct conferences in the newly projected course, on schools organized upon the Country Day model, which is offered this year in the summer school of Teachers' college, Columbia university.

SUMMER SCHOOL BENEFIT

Mrs. William Ogden Green of 90 Locust road and Mrs. Austin Jenner of 1005 Hill road will open their homes Tuesday, May 25, for a 2 o'clock bridge for the benefit of the Christ Church Summer school. Tickets may be procured from either of the two hostesses.

OFF FOR CLUB BIENNIAL

Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford of 835 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, and Mrs. Homer E. Cotton and Mrs. Floy Little Bartlett of Winnetka are leaving on a special train from Chicago Sunday evening to attend the National Federation Biennial at Atlantic City from May 25 until June 5.

Charlotte Chandler, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler, 9 Indian Hill road, is convalescing after an attack of pneumonia.

Informality and Simplicity Mark Recent Wedding

Beautiful simplicity marked the wedding of Miss Marjorie Buhner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Buhner of Ravinia, and Daniel Wilkie Kohlsaas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phil-emon B. Kohlsaas of 341 Woodland avenue, Winnetka, which took place Saturday afternoon, May 8, in the presence of only the families and intimate friends.

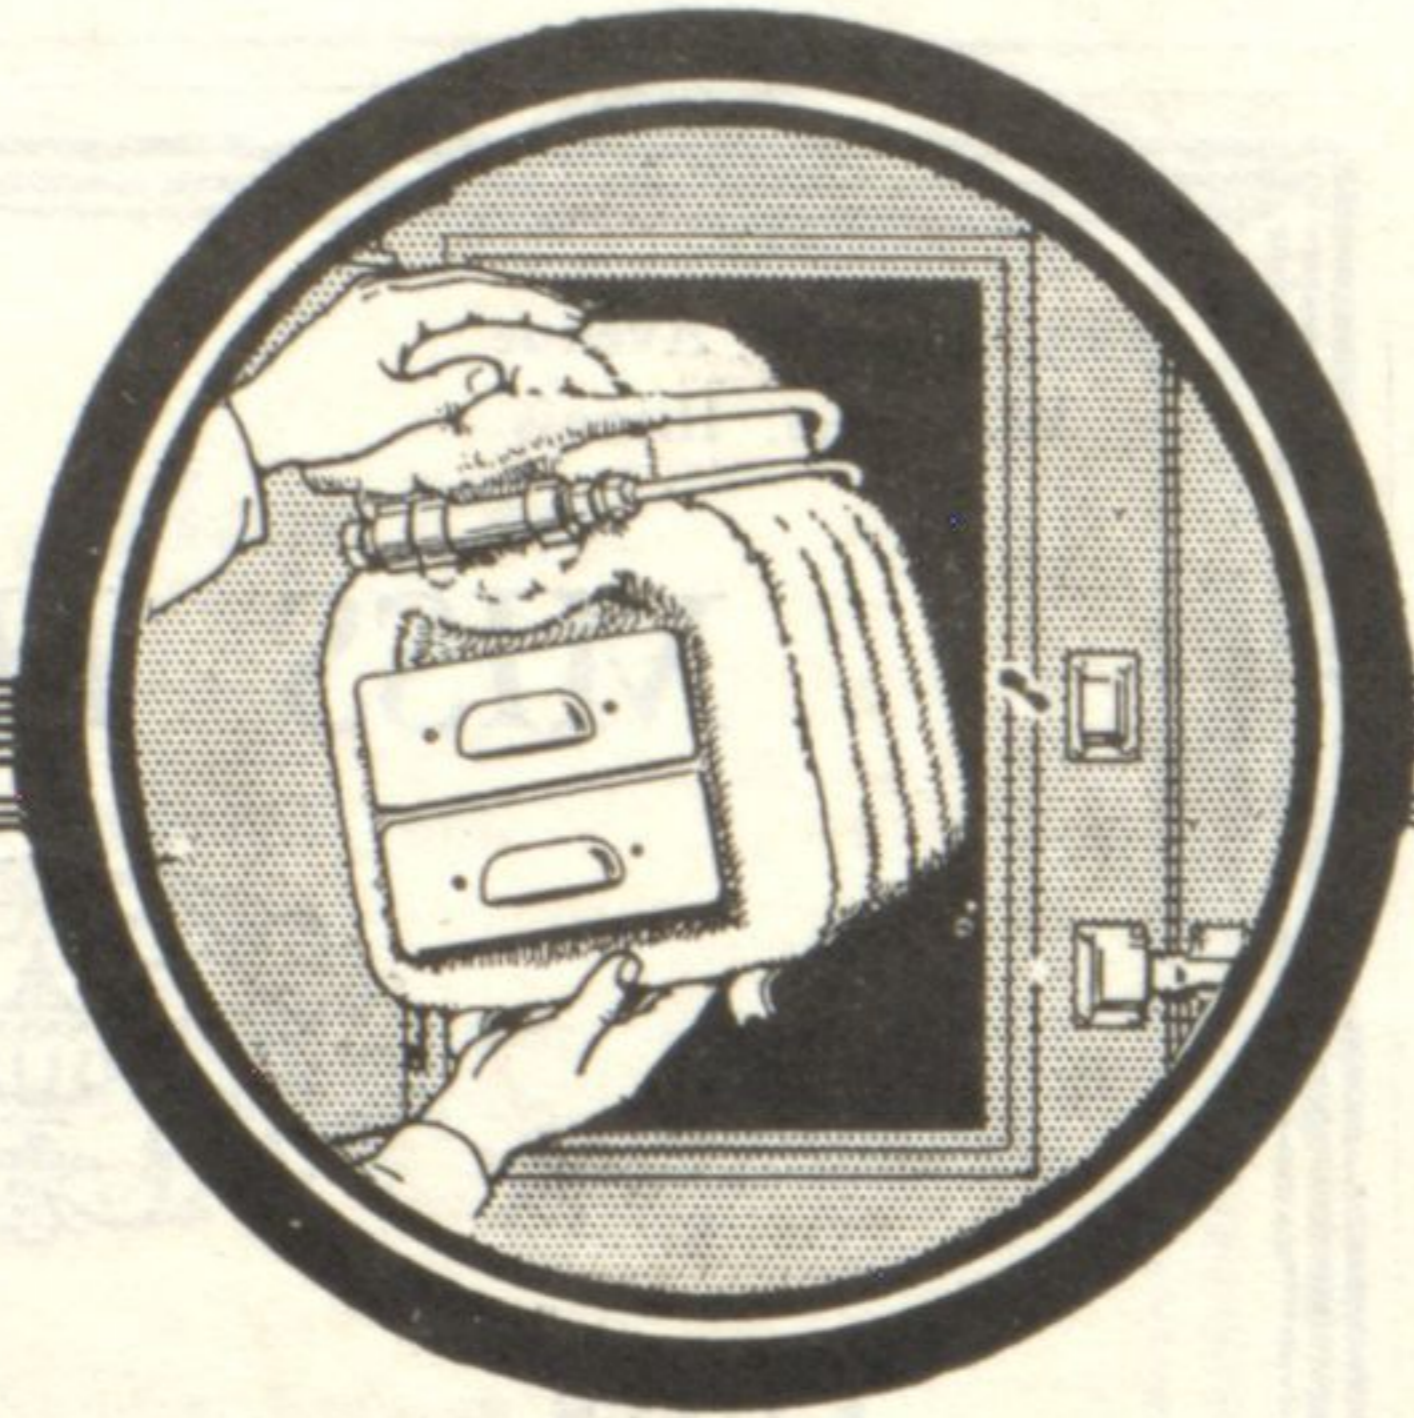

Spring flowers were artistically arranged in decoration of the Kohlsaas home where the marriage service was read at 4 o'clock, by the Rev. James Austin Richards, before the fireplace banked two box trees.

The bride's gown was of ivory chiffon velvet trimmed with seed pearls. Her veil of tulle was held in place by a coronet of pearls, and her bouquet was of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Miss Katherine Buhner, her sister's only attendant, wore a frock of blue georgette crepe and carried a Colonial corsage bouquet.

Mr. Kohlsaas and his bride are occupying the apartment they have taken in the Wilmette Inn.

Mrs. Clarence D. Worthington of the Orrington hotel, left last Sunday for the East, to remain with her son, Del, until he graduates from Dartmouth college. Upon the close of the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, Miss Mary Worthington will join her mother and brother and they all will sail for Europe where they will remain during the summer.

Mrs. Magnus A. Martin, 671 Willow street, who has been quite ill for the past nine weeks, is slowly recuperating.

Frigidaire will make an electric refrigerator of any ice-box

You can convert your own ice-box into a Frigidaire easily, quickly, by having a Frigidaire unit installed. Then you'll have real refrigeration without effort, thought, ice bills; and with complete satisfaction.

Frigidaire keeps all foods, cooked or raw, colder than ice can. The temperature is even, constant, germless, correct in degree. Frigidaire makes ice for you in cubes for cold drinks and other household uses.

Go away for a day or week. Frigidaire works while you are gone. It needs no watching. There's nothing to turn on nor off. And its operation usually costs less than ice.

Come in and see Frigidaire work. See why it has 150,000 users who wouldn't do without it. Find out how easily it's bought on the GMAC time payment plan. Telephone or write for the Frigidaire Catalogue.

This modern "ice man" calls once—with Frigidaire—and the ice stays always
