Student Charged With Speeding Following Crash

L. A. Schulz, a student of Northwestern university, living at Foster House, Evanston, was booked by the Wilmette police on a charge of speeding last Thursday afternoon following a collision between his car and one driven by James Smith, 1246 Maple avenue, Evanston. The accident occurred at Wilmette avenue and Fifteenth street.

Schulz, together with four students from Wisconsin university, who were visiting Northwestern to play a golf match, was driving east on Wilmette avenue and Smith was driving south on Fifteenth street. With Smith was his mother and a man whose name was not learned. Smith was cut about the face but not seriously injured.

The machine in which the students were riding was turned completely over, Schulz receiving severe cuts on the hand, and the others receiving minor cuts and bruises. Smith signed the complaint against Schulz following the accident and he was booked and released on bond. The case will be heard before Police Magistrate D. M. Mickey next Tuesday.

PLAN TEACHERS' PICNIC

Army Heads Send Sons to Ft. Sheridan Camp

That Camp Roosevelt, the summer educational training camp of the Chicago Public school system, at Fort Sheridan this year enjoys the confidence of officers of the army is indicated by the number of sons of officers who are enrolling. Officers of the General staff in Washington, officers from headquarters of the 6th Corps Area, and even officers at Fort Sheridan will have their sons become members.

Major F. L. Beals, in charge of the R.O.T.C. in Chicago schools and in command of the camp, says, "This interest of army officers in Camp Roosevelt shows that the camp stands well in the estimation of those men who are most competent to judge."

While the camp is primarily for boys of the Chicago schools, William McAndrews, superintendent of schools, has extended an invitation to boys throughout the middle west to attend.
