FESTIVAL NEXT WEEK

Notable Artists of Opera Stage to Appear at Annual Musical Event in Evanston

The eighteenth festival of the Chicago North Shore Festival association will open Monday, May 24, with an imposing presentation of two large choral works—Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise and Hadley's "The New Earth." To interpret these works Dean Peter C. Lutkin, the director, will offer the great festival chorus of 600 voices, the A Cappella choir, the Chicago Symphony orchestra and the following soloists: Marie Sundelius, soprano; Alma Peterson, soprano; Marie Morrisey, contralto; Vernon Williams, tenor, and Mark Love, bass. As in former seasons the concerts will be given in Northwestern university gymnasium, Evanston.

Ossip Gabrilowitsch will be the soloist at the second concert, Tuesday, May 25, the program of which will be devoted to the music of Tchaikowsky. There will be no concert the following evening, but on Thursday May 27, Giovanni Martinelli, tenor of the Metropolitan Opera company, will be solo artist. Additional interest will be given to the concert in the fact that in addition to Frederick Stock, who is again orchestral director of the festival, there will be two guest conductors—Henry Hadley and Eric De-Lamarter, who will direct compositions of their own.

Skipping another evening—the "empty" dates are devoted to rehearsals—the fourth program will be given Saturday afternoon, May 29, when the children's chorus will be the notable feature of the concert, at which Sylvia Lent, a charming young violinist, will appear as soloist. The fifth concert, Monday, May 31, will be given over to Brahms' German Requiem, with Mabel Garrison and Boris Saslawsky as soloists, and to orchestral selections directed by Frederick Stock. Mr. Lutkin will direct the choral work. The last concert will bring forward two soloists—Dusolina Giannini, soprano, and Lawrence Tibbett, baritone—when it is given Tuesday evening, June 1. The orchestral composition which will have won the prize of $1,000 offered to the best American work by the festival association, will be conducted by Mr. Stock at this closing program and the festival will come to a sonorous conclusion with Fletcher's Song of Victory, which will be led by Mr. Lutkin.
