Village of Glenview to Confer With Railway Company on Extension of Lines

With the extension of her village limits' boundaries to include several hundreds of acres, and on the east to a point to include the Glenayre station of the new Skokie Valley line of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee railway, Glenview appears to be going still further and bids fair, it is said, to have very soon still another line of transportation, that of the Evanston Street railway.

At the regular quarterly business meeting of the Glenview Chamber of Commerce, on May 27, Charles F. Speed, manager of the Evanston Railway company, will address the Glenview body of business men on the matter of the proposed extension of his line to Glenview.

Another prominent speaker, whom it is announced will be at the meeting, is Max Murdock, secretary of the General Council for the Illinois State association of Real Estate boards.

The activity in the past two years in acreage real estate between Wilmette and Glenview, all of which territory during that time has been annexed either to Glenview or Wilmette and a great deal of it subdivided, sold and in many instances improved, is being given further attention by the announcement of the contemplated plan of the Evanston Railway company, and the meeting at Glenview Thursday evening of next week, promises to be one of the most interesting of the season. The meeting will be at the Village school house at 8 o'clock.

Bennett, formerly residing at 1228 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, have purchased the southwest corner of Ashland avenue and Thirteenth street, through the firm of Eddington and Allen, Inc., 410 Linden avenue. The Bennetts have started building and expect to occupy their new home by the latter part of the summer, it is said.

GO TO FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Turner have recently sold their home at 749 Twelfth street, Wilmette, and expect to make their future home on the southeast coast of Florida. Charles E. Hotze, associated with Lloyd Hollister, Inc., was the purchaser and Eddington and Allen, Inc., 410 Linden avenue, were the brokers.

FLOOD FAMILY RETURNS

Mr. and Mrs. Russell G. Flood, who were formerly residents of Wilmette, are again located in the village, having purchased through Hill and Stone, of 404 Linden avenue, the new six-room brick house erected by James Crabb, at 116 Sixteenth street, and of which they have taken possession.
