

Tireless Worker

Robert Kenyon, 1011 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette, student at New Trier High school, has been shouldering a man-size job these days in connection with the preparations for the great New Trier anniversary pageant to be staged at the high school June 14 and 15. In addition to having important roles in the pageant, Robert is responsible for the accumulation of a vast amount of material for the Pageant Portfolio, a souvenir edition that will set forth the pageant program and provide a valuable historical record of the school. He also has been doing yeoman service in the publicity field, bringing news of the pageant to the various men's organizations in the township.

"Robert Kenyon's service to his school in connection with this pageant has been almost beyond measure," is the comment of a member of the New Trier faculty.

Robert is prominent in scores of school activities. He is editor of Echoes, the year book of the school.

To Award Anderson Medal In Final Skokie Assembly

The awarding of the Donald Anderson Memorial medal, at Skokie school, will be made at the final assembly of the school year, Tuesday, June 8 at 2 o'clock.

This medal is given each year to the boy or girl, who, in the opinion of the faculty and graduating class, has lived up to the ideals of service, character and sportsmanship, to emphasize which the medal was established.

The service pins which are awarded each year to the members of the graduating class who have most outstandingly carried out the spirit of service in the school, will also be awarded at this time, as will also the baseball and service emblems.

THE POET'S DREAM

On a Poet's lips I slept
 Dreaming like a love-adept
 In the sound his breathing kept;
 Nor seeks nor finds the mortal blisses,
 But feeds on the aerial kisses
 Of shapes that haunt Thought's wildernesses.
 He will watch from dawn to gloom
 The lake-reflected sun illumine
 The yellow bees in the ivy-bloom,
 Nor heed, nor see what things they be—
 But from these create he can
 Forms more real than living Man,
 Nurslings of Immortality!

—Shelley.

Substation Hearing to Be Resumed on Tuesday

The public hearing on the petition of the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee railroad for a building permit to erect a substation adjacent to its right-of-way at Pine street will be continued next Tuesday evening, June 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the council chamber of the Village hall. The hearing was at the last meeting of the council, but was continued to allow members of the board to get further information on the subject. A large number of residents of the vicinity attended the previous meeting and protested against the proposal.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dixon of Chicago have rented the Edward Alles home in Winnetka for the summer. The house was recently purchased by Dr. Frank W. Blatchford of Winnetka.

Here Are Some of the Short-Sighted Views of Life:

LIVING beyond one's means for appearance sake.
 WITH increased earnings, desire to increase spending.
 TOO MUCH SHOW, living for today, making no preparation for tomorrow.
 ALL OF THIS may be human nature, but it's the curse of the times.

IT IS THE CAUSE OF

- WANT
- FAILURE
- DISTRESS

THE SURE WAY to be prepared for unexpected misfortunes is to have a bank book in your name showing an increased balance with growing interest credits.

USE OUR BANK; it is here for the use and benefit of everybody in this village.

All deposits made in our Savings Bank on or before June 10th, will draw interest from June 1st.
