

Miss Katherine Weary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weary, 346 Jackson avenue, Glencoe, was hostess to sixteen of her young friends at a supper Monday, May 17, in celebration of her twelfth birthday. A treasure hunt, dancing and games were the features of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weary of 346 Jackson avenue, Glencoe, have leased their home for the summer months, and with their children, will spend the entire summer in the East, probably at Cape Cod, or nearby. They are leaving the early part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. William Crilly of 606 Provident avenue motored to the University of Illinois last week-end to attend a convention of Mr. Crilly's fraternity. He is an Amherst man.

Curtis Camp of 81 Lakewood drive, Glencoe, was the speaker for the department of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs at the convention held at the Edgewater Beach hotel last week. He chose for his subject, "The New Chicago Galleries Association and Its Relation to the State." Mr. Camp is president of the Municipal Art League.

North Shore Orchestra Will Play Over WGES

Jerry Psenicka's Nightingales, an orchestra composed of a group of north shore musicians under the leadership of Jerry Psenicka, of Winnetka, will broadcast a program each Tuesday and Friday evening, beginning Tuesday evening of next week, from the Baldwin Piano building studio, 322 South Wabash avenue, Chicago. The station is WGES.

The station will be on the air from 8 to 9 p. m. and again from 11 p. m. to 1 a. m.

Jerry Psenicka, the leader, and Nat Salomon will play saxophones; Al Butow, banjo; Lloyd Scheck, drums; Forest Eason, trombone, and Russell Lundquist, piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Fias Magnus of 1141 Chatfield road, Hubbard Woods, will be at home to their friends Sunday, June 6, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Magnus are leaving June 7, for a western trip which will keep them away six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Weld, 983 Vine street, have had as their house guest last week, Mr. Weld's mother, Mrs. Harold Weld, of Rock Island, who was attending the convention of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs in session at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Mrs. Weld returned to her home last Monday.

Lyman Huff of Elm street is returning from a business trip to California this week-end.

Church Group to Present Play in Winnetka June 2

The Builders, the young people's society of St. John's Lutheran church, Wilmette, will present their play, "Dust of the Earth," in Winnetka, the evening of Wednesday, June 2, at 8:15 o'clock, at the Parish House of Christ church, corner of Oak and Linden.

The play was given in Wilmette this Thursday evening, where, in theatrical parlance, "it went over big." The attendance in Wilmette, also, was large and the young people are anticipating an equally successful appearance in Winnetka. They made their own scenery for the play and have provided a good program of music and specialties for between the acts. Members of the cast follow:

Jerry, Alvin Seehafer; Mr. Moore, Jerry's father, Edwin Fromm; Elizabeth, his daughter, Eleanor Seehafer; Mrs. Moore, Bessie Weiss; Nell, his niece; "The Dust of the Earth," Miss Etta Horn; Dr. Templeton, the village rector, George Mergenthaler; Arabella, the village gossip, Elaine Mergenthaler; John Ryden, a young master of "The Maples," Earl Gamron; Tom Osbourne, otherwise known as "Wandering Tom," Ed. Cramer; Mose, his faithful servant and friend, Carl Knobel.

Mrs. E. G. Howell and her small son, of 558 Birch street, have returned from a ten day visit in Pentwater, Mich., where they were the guests of Mrs. Howell's mother.

Everyone should know Bill the Washington Laundry Man

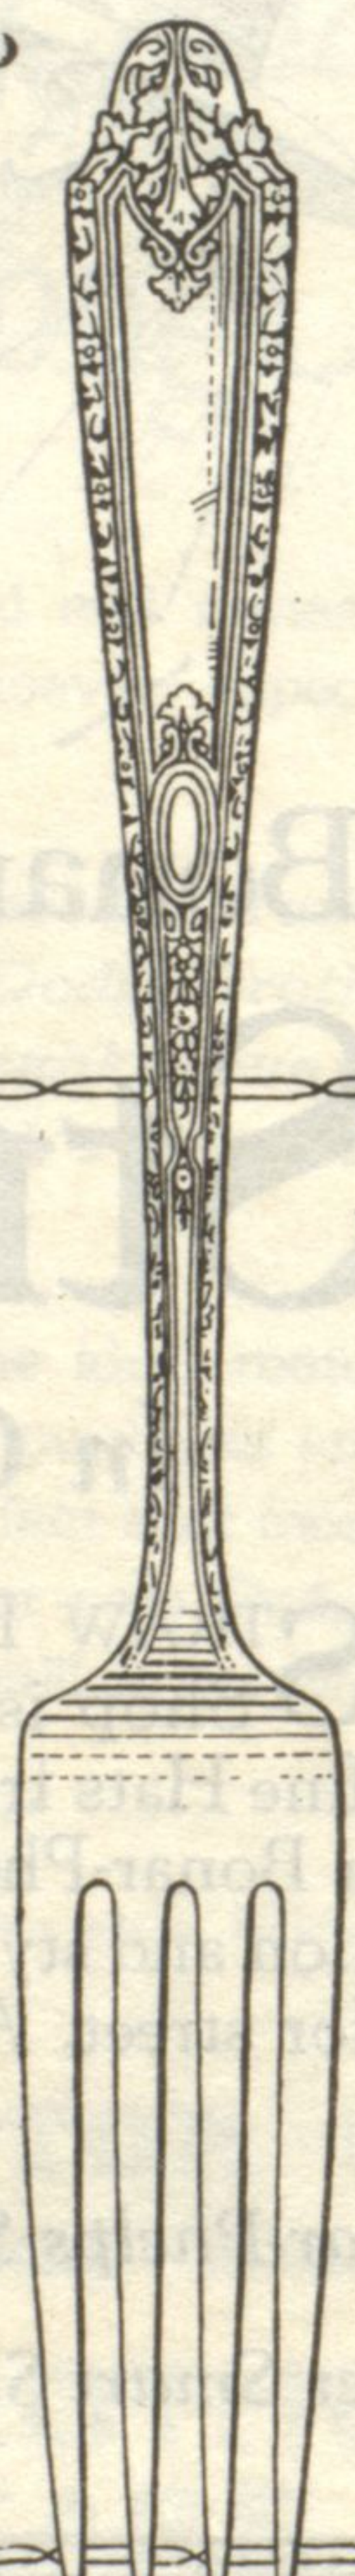

Bill is a good man to know—he has a cure for the "Washday Bugaboo." Bill's hobby is being courteous and obliging—he is a representative of the Washington Laundry.

Everyone should know Bill better. By giving him the family washing, Mother can save herself a lot of time and worry, and have the satisfaction of knowing that everything will be returned on time—beautifully done—and costing much less than if she did it herself.

Bill has a service for Father too, who will be very much pleased when he sees the splendid way in which his shirts and collars—about which every man is very particular—are returned.

CALL IN BILL TODAY—HE'S IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD TODAY—AND EVERY DAY.
