

Mrs. Robert J. Mehren of 785 Walden road entertained eight friends, all of whom were college friends, at a luncheon Tuesday at her home.

Norman Sommer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sommer of 425 Provident avenue, will spend the week-end with his parents. He is a freshman at St. John's Military academy, and is coming with the entire corps of 450 students to join in the Decoration Day parade in Chicago, and to be guests of the First Regular Armory. The academy group will be one of the main features of the Memorial day parade.

ACCEPTS COLLEGE POST

Miss Rua Van Horn, one of the members of the New Trier high school faculty, who has been on leave of absence for the past year, has resigned her position as head of the Home Economics department. She has accepted the position of assistant professor of Home Economics and State Supervision at the University of Montana.

Mrs. Dick Roth of Provident avenue entertained a few of her friends at luncheon and bridge at her home Tuesday.

New Trier Track Men Trim Waukegan Twice

New Trier high school won a track meet with Waukegan high school in both junior and senior divisions last Saturday. The senior division won by a score of 58 to 55, the half mile relay deciding the victory for New Trier. The juniors trimmed their Waukegan opponents by a score of 40 to 25. Stover was the individual star of the senior meet, winning two firsts and one second place. The meet was held at the Waukegan high school.

Dorothy Hartman to Marry on Saturday Evening, June 19

Miss Dorothy Hartman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hartman of 1129 Elmwood avenue, will marry Charles Richard Groffart of Belleville, Ill., Saturday evening, June 19, at 8:30 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church, the Rev. George P. Magill officiating.

Miss Elizabeth Nilson of Glencoe will be maid of honor; Mrs. N. J. Lareau of Evanston, matron of honor; Miss Henri Lost of Chicago and Miss Florence Alwart of Evanston, the bridesmaids. June Webster, also of Evanston will be flower girl.

The groomsmen will be George Hartman, brother of the bride, and N. J. Lareau, Bernard Black, Robert Friedlunder of Evanston, and M. Leighton Smith of Chicago.

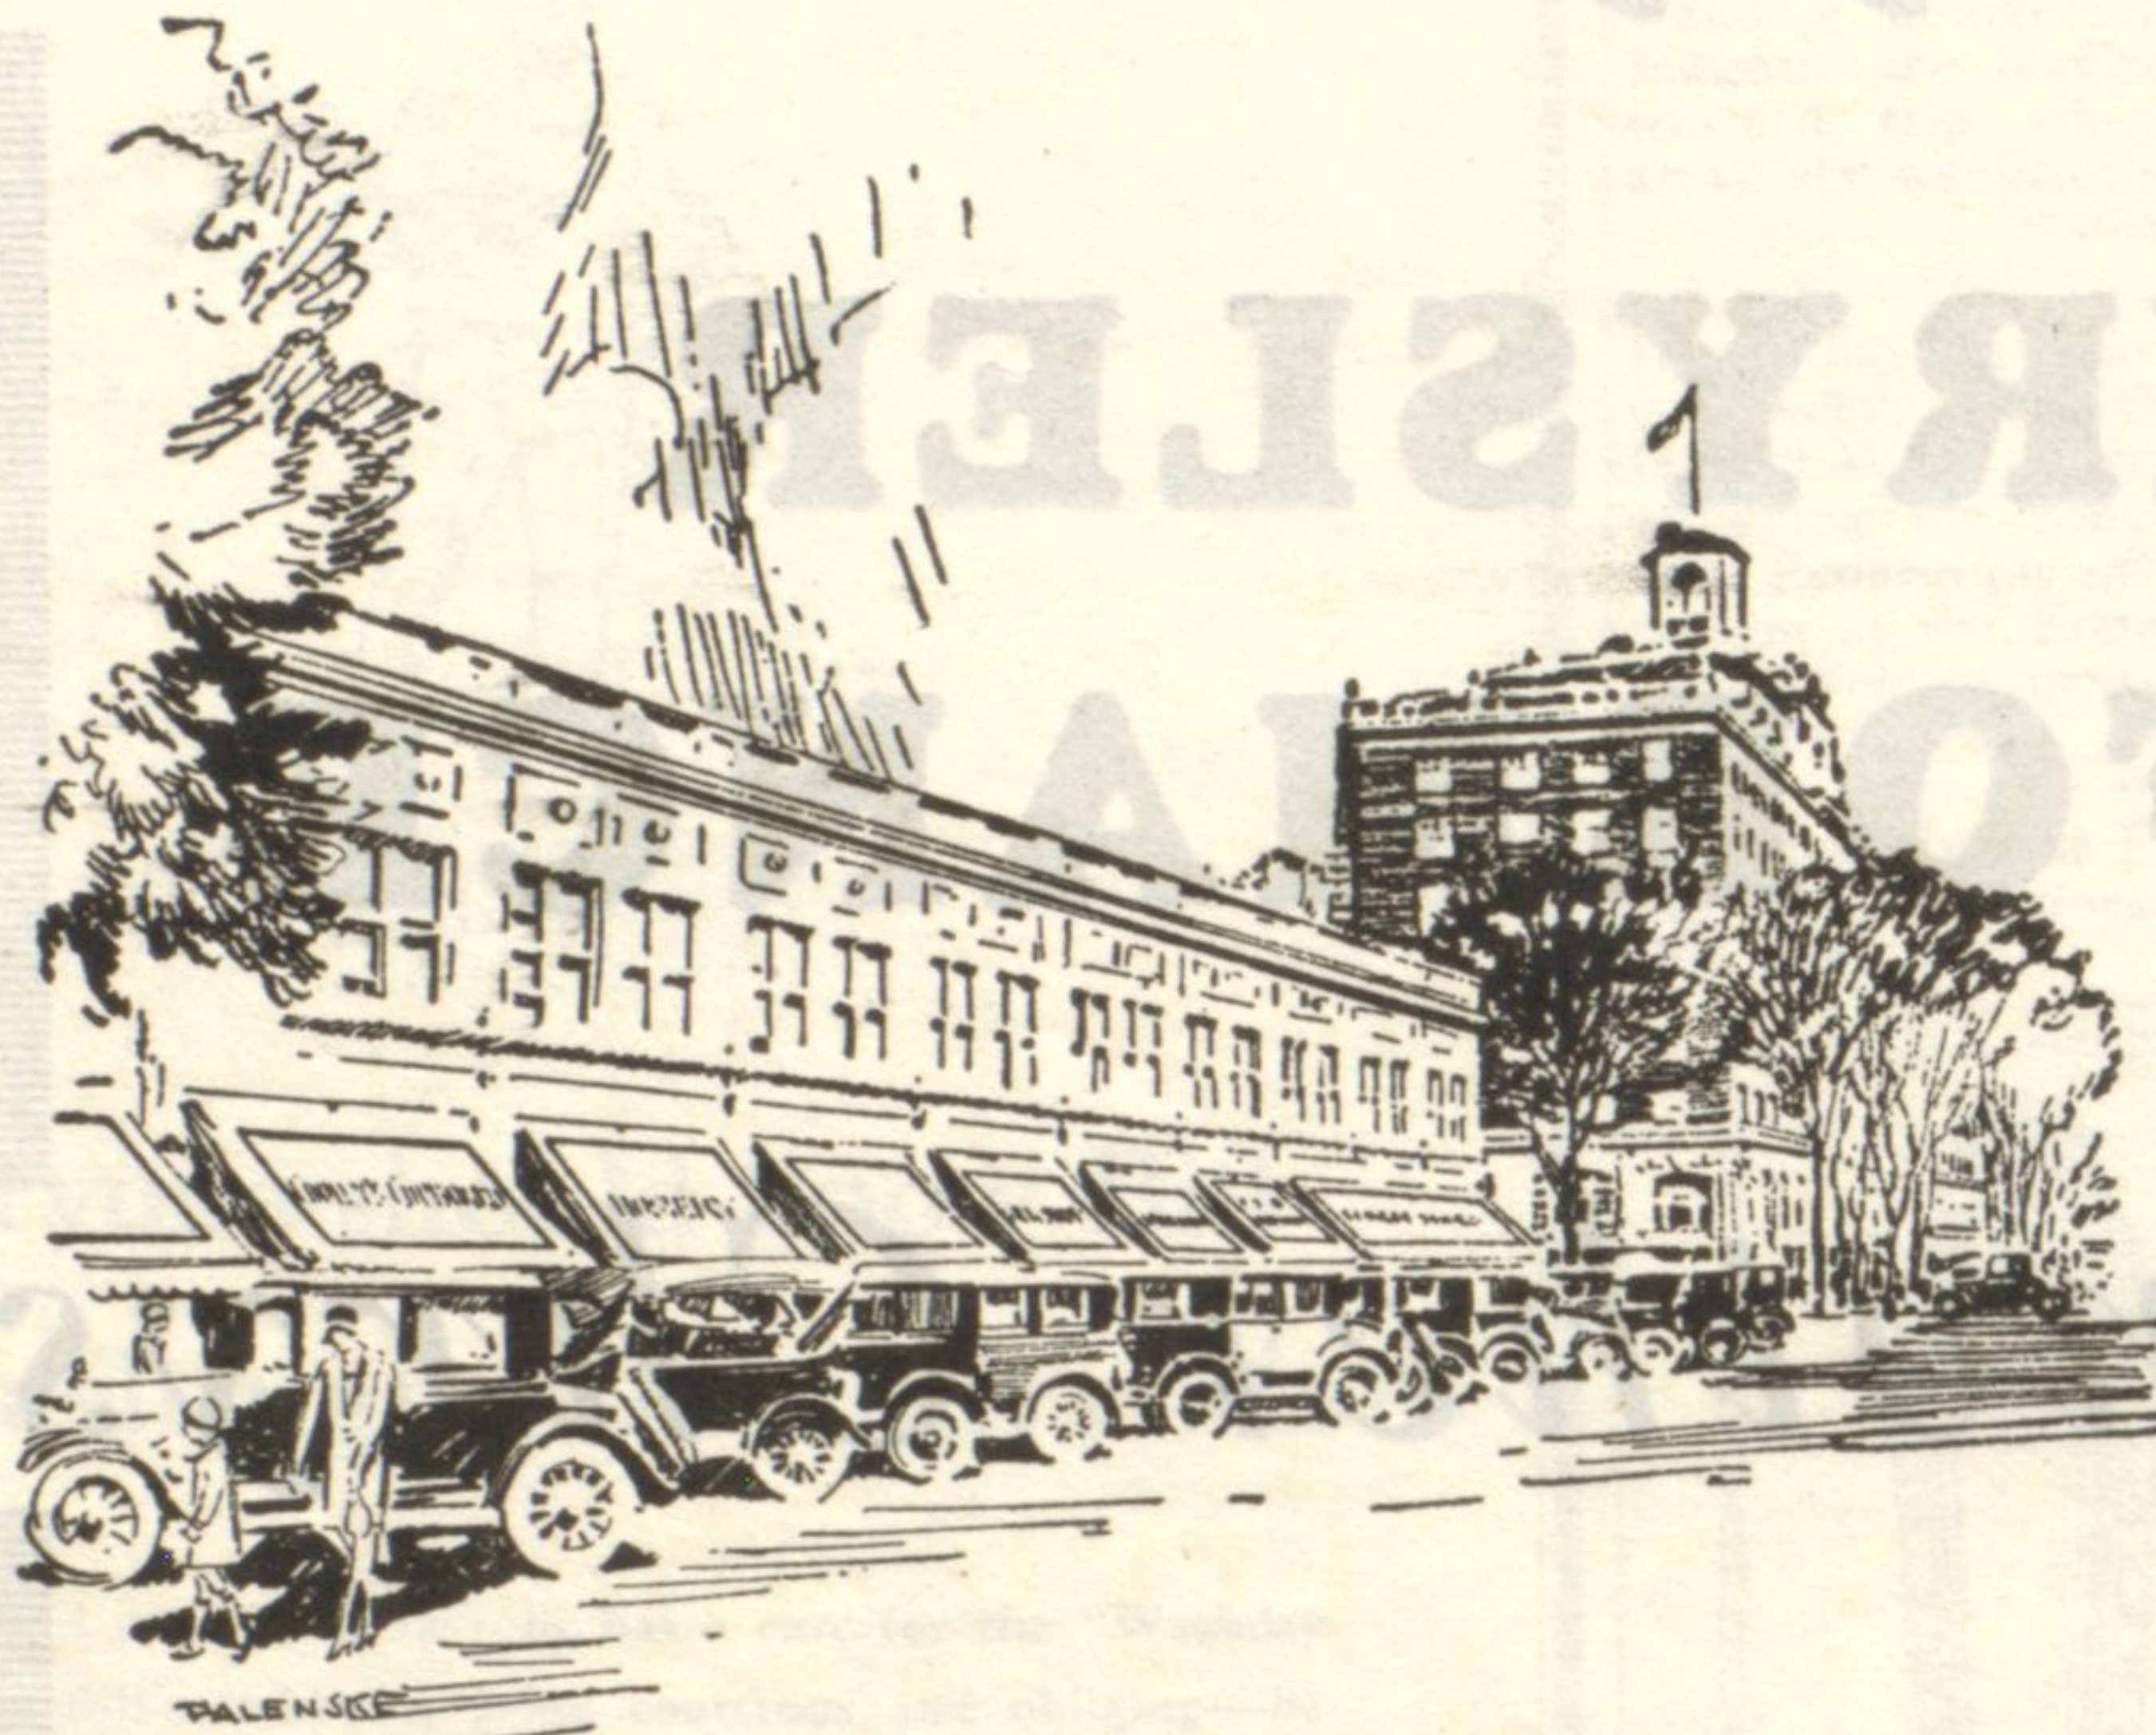

Among the affairs to be given for Miss Hartman are: luncheon for her attendants at her home Saturday, May 22; a book shower on Wednesday, June 2, given by Miss Lost at her home in Chicago; a personal shower given by Mrs. Webster Saturday June 12, at the North Shore hotel; a handkerchief shower given by Mrs. Lareau Tuesday, June 15, at the Illinois Athletic club, Chicago; Thursday, June 17, a trousseau tea given by Mrs. Hartman; Friday evening, June 18, the bridal dinner will be given.

BETROTHED

Of interest to a number of Winnetkans is the recent announcement of the engagement of Miss Lora Josephine Colvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Colvin of Evanston, to Gordon Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Whitney, also of Evanston. No definite date has been set for the wedding. Miss Colvin is the sister of William H. Colvin, Jr., formerly of Winnetka, but now a resident of London, England.

Mrs. Katherina Brandt of 797 Cherry street has just returned from a six months' trip to California. Mrs. R. Lampton and Mrs. B. Brown of California made the return trip with her and are making her a visit of several days on their way to Louisville, Ky.

The family of Charles H. Carlstrand have left the Kenilorth Inn and will reside, until September 15, at Round Lake, Ill. The Carlstrands expect to locate permanently in Winnetka in the fall.

Saving Time

North Shore people appreciate the business and professional advantages of Evanston—you find exactly what you want without loss of time.

It Pays to Shop in Evanston

EVANSTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

©1926, Evanston Chamber of Commerce

Soldiers' Memorial, Oak Park
Granite Cut and Erected by

J. H. ANDERSON MONUMENT CO.

We make the Better Class
Memorials

5751 Ravenswood Avenue
Write for Catalogue