Local Men Assist in Sesquicentennial Fete

Several north shore men are included on the Citizens' Civic committee appointed by Mayor William E. Dever, for the purpose of sponsoring the pageant, "The Birth of Chicago," to be presented in Soldiers' Field, Chicago, June 1-7. This presentation will be Chicago's contribution to the observance of the sesquicentennial anniversary of the establishment of the United States of American.

Among the north shore men on the committee are Charles M. Hayes of Winnetka; Axel Lonnquist of Wilmette; James Simpson of Glencoe and Congressman Henry Riggs Rathbone of Kenilworth.

Relatives and Intimate Friends Witness Wedding

Mrs. Felix Balek announces the marriage of her daughter, Julia Dorothy, to John Thomas Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vollman of 801 Cherry street, Wednesday, May 26, at 5 o'clock, the Rev. William Haarth of the Sacred Heart church officiating. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, 398 Rosewood avenue, which was decorated with spring flowers.

The bride wore a frock of beige georgette and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and sweet peas. Her only attendant was her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Caroline Balek, who was in a dress of powder blue georgette, and carried pink roses. Both the bride and her sister wore picture hats matching their dresses.

William Porcher acted as the groom's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell have gone north for their honeymoon, and upon their return they will be with the bride's mother for an indefinite period.
